BOO CORRIGAN

Director of Athletics
@BooCorrigan
8th Year
Notre Dame, 1990

Boo Corrigan has presided over one of the most successful eras in Army West Point's recent history with Black Knights setting milestones and records both on the fields of friendly strife and in the classroom.

Now in the midst of his eighth year as the Director of Intercollegiate Athletics at the U.S. Military Academy, Corrigan has guided the Black Knights to incredible achievements with victories over Navy, surpassing ambitious fundraising goals, upgrading several facilities, adding three varsity sports and creating a new brand identity, all while cadet-athletes continue to raise the bar academically.

Corrigan, the 2017 NACDA Athletic Director of the Year, continues to advance the athletic experience for cadet-athletes, coaches, alumni, fans and administrators all while abiding by the warrior ethos. During the 2017-18 year, the Black Knights raised the bar yet again with two CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, four Scholar-Athletes of the Year, 13 major award winners, 25 individual NCAA Qualifiers, three Patriot League Champions a Collegiate Sprint Football League Title, the Commander in Chief's Trophy, a second consecutive bowl win and two team NCAA appearances.

Corrigan has put a consistent emphasis on cadet-athlete wellness, making it a top priority since arriving here at the Academy. He has also implemented the use of 360 meetings to include administrators, sport supervisors, academic advisors, athletic trainers, strength and conditioning staff, coaches, and communications directors. This brings a cohesive environment throughout each sports team. Lastly, Corrigan has prioritized mental health and social media training to make sure every cadet-athlete is well educated in their trending areas.

Kenneth Brinson of the Army football team and track and field team, Lynne Mooradian also of the track and field team and Matt Ball of the baseball team were each named Academic-All Americans this year. Brinson excelled with an impressive 4.06 grade-point average as a chemical engineering major, while Mooridian and Ball boasted a 4.23 and 3.99 GPA while studying mechanical engineering and cybersecurity, respectively.

The Army West Point Athletic Association was formed in 2017. Corrigan oversaw the transition into a 501(c)3 non-profit organization on March 1, 2017 to gain flexibility and autonomy for the department. The mission is "to provide an extraordinary Division I athletic experience that develops leaders of character committed to the values of Duty, Honor, Country." The goals are to recruit and develop scholar-athletes who lead the Corps of Cadets, while competing and winning at the highest level and adhering to the department of the Army, NCAA conference, and Academy rules, regulations, and policies.

Throughout his time at West Point, Corrigan has overseen a program that owns 20 Patriot League regular season or tournament championships and sent 14 teams to the NCAA postseason. A total of 80 cadets have also earned a major award from their conference.

Under Corrigan's leadership, Army has added women's lacrosse and men's and women's rugby to its offering of sports with nearly a quarter of the Corps of Cadets, around 1,000, competing in varsity sports. In addition to the new sport offerings, three major facility projects have been completed to enhance the cadet-athletes' overall experience. 2016 saw the opening of the 15,000 square foot Foley, Enners, Nathe Lacrosse Center which is a state-of-the-art facility housing the men's and women's lacrosse programs with locker rooms, team specific rooms, new athletic training and equipment space along with an all-purpose area. Malek Stadium and Goldstein Field were erected for the summer of 2017. Malek Stadium is the brand new home for the men's and women's soccer programs and features chairback seating and a new multi-level press box which integrates the architecture of the area to aesthetically enrich the appearance of the Plain. Goldstein Field is a new practice facility that was constructed south of Michie Stadium that will provide unmatched functionality for all sports teams as seasons progress and for inclement weather.

Through his guidance, the Army A Club has seen a 16% increase in membership, to nearly 5,500 members in 2016, while increasing the total money raised annually by 148% from $2.5 million annually to $6.2 million in 2016. In addition, Corrigan has led significant growth of the Athletic Department's endowments establishing 16 new funds, more than doubling the number of endowments, and growing the department's total endowment funds by more than $11.5 million in his tenure.

Corrigan has strengthened and expanded Army Athletics' relationships in several key areas. In his tenure, Army has secured a new apparel agreement with Nike, a new pouring rights contract with Coke and has brought in the Aspire Group to enhance ticket sales and better serve Army season ticket holders. Corrigan also crafted the Team Army concept, a comprehensive plan designed to add significant value to Army's corporate sponsorships, while maintaining the tradition of West Point Athletics.

Army also partnered with Nike to complete a successful rebranding initiative in the spring of 2015. Corrigan ushered in a new logo and word mark for Army West Point as part of the rebrand.

Cadet-athletes have continued to thrive in the classroom under Corrigan's watch. In his seven full years, Army has boasted 16 Academic All-Americans, including eight first-team selections. Since the start of the 2011-12 season, Army boasts nine Patriot League Scholar-Athletes of the Year, including four from last season and one CoSIDA First Team All-District honoree.

Prior to his arrival on the banks of the Hudson, Corrigan spent three years as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs at Duke University, was an Associate Athletic Director at the University of Notre Dame for five years and spent time as the Associate Athletic Director for Marketing at the U.S. Naval Academy.

Corrigan is a 1990 University of Notre Dame graduate with a degree in economics and later obtained a Master's in Education from VCU in 2013. He is married to the former Kristen Aceto, a field hockey and lacrosse player at the University of Virginia, who also earned a master's degree from the school. The couple have three children, Finley (17), Tre (15) and Brian (14). He is the youngest of seven children of Gene and Lena Corrigan.

ARMY WEST POINT ON TELEVISION

CBS Sports Network and the Army Athletic Association announced an exclusive five-year agreement in the spring of 2015, guaranteeing live television coverage of every Army West Point home football game and select neutral-site games in which Army is the home team, on CBS Sports Network, beginning with the 2015 season and continuing through 2019. The deal was announced by David Berson, President, CBS Sports, and Boo Corrigan, Director of Athletics at West Point.

A partnership provides that all Army home football games will be played on Saturday afternoons beginning at either noon or 3:30 p.m. ET with all kickoff times to be set by May 1 each year. Additionally, a live web stream of all Army's home broadcasts will be made available free of charge to soldiers and military personnel around the world.

In the last 21 years, 113 Army games have been televised nationally, 25 via network television. The Black Knights have played before a national television audience 101 times the past 10 seasons alone. A host of other games have been televised regionally. Army West Point is one of just three schools in the country guaranteed to have all of its home games televised nationally.

JEFF MONKEN

@CoachJeffMonken
Head Coach
5th Season
Millikin, 1989

Jeff Monken, named Army's 37th individual head coach on Dec. 24, 2013, is set to begin his fifth season at the helm in 2018.

Monken shows a 60-42 career record as a head coach and a 24-26 mark at Army. The Black Knights have enjoyed success over the past two seasons with a record of 18-8, wins over Navy and two bowl game victories.

Last season Monken led Army to its most successful season in over two decades, earning 10 victories, the Commander in Chief's Trophy championship and a victory in the 2017 Armed Forces Bowl. The success resulted in multiple nominations for national coach of the year for Monken, including a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award and the Eddie Robinson Award.

Under Monken, the Black Knights won the NCAA Division I Football Bowl Subdivision rushing title by averaging 362.3 rushing yards per game and finished with 50 rushing touchdowns, which broke the program record for a single season. On the other side of the ball, Army was third in the nation in red zone defense and 14th against the pass. The Black Knights held opponents to 22 points per game and ended Air Force's 306-game scoring streak with a 21-0 victory at Falcon Stadium. It was the first shutout against a service academy since 1969. The Black Knights were rewarded for their success as the ECAC Division I FBS Team of the Year

The 2016 season was a memorable one for the Black Knights under Monken. He led them to their first win over Navy since 2001 and won a bowl game for the first time in six seasons. The last time the Black Knights accomplished both feats in the same season was in 1984. Army was second in the nation in rushing offense and ran for an Academy single-season 46 touchdowns, which eclipsed the 1945 national championship team. On the defense side, Army was consistently in the top 10 in total defense and finished the year fourth in the nation.

In 2015, he led Army to a pair of wins over Bucknell and Eastern Michigan. Under Coach Monken, the Black Knights had five players reach 100 yards rushing in a game in 2015 and had three different quarterbacks throw for 100 yards. Signal callers Ahmad Bradshaw and Chris Carter ran and threw for 100 yards in their career debuts. Army won on the road for the first time since 2010 with a 58-36 win over Eastern Michigan.

Army finished the season ranked 12th in the country in rushing offense at 244.3 yards per game. Linebacker Andrew King was the top player in the national rankings. He was 21st in tackles for loss with an average of 2.1 per game and 26th in fumbles recovered with two.

In Monken's first season at Army, he guided the Black Knights to home victories over Buffalo, Ball State and Fordham, in addition to a dramatic win against Connecticut at Yankee Stadium.

Under his guidance, running back Larry Dixon, linebacker Jeremy Timpf, defensive back Josh Jenkins and offensive lineman Matt Hugenberg earned 11 citations on postseason all-star teams and two players, Joe Drummond and Dixon, competed in The Medal of Honor Bowl Game and East-West Shrine Game, respectively.

Army was fifth in the country in rushing offense at 296.5 yards per game in Monken's first season and sixth in fewest penalties per game with just 4.08 infractions per contest.

Monken tutored a host of players who listed in the national rankings. Timpf was seventh in the nation in solo tackles per game and 23rd in tackles per game. Jenkins was eighth in the country in blocked kicks and 33rd in interceptions per game, and both Lamar Johnson-Harris and Xavier Moss ranked 11th in punt return touchdowns. Dixon listed nationally in rushing yards per carry (30th), rushing yards (39th) and rushing yards per game (41st).

With a 47-39 win against Buffalo, Monken became the first head coach to win his first game since Bob Sutton did so in 1991 with a victory over Colgate. Prior to Monken, the last Army coach to win his first game against a Football Bowl Subdivision opponent was Ed Cavanaugh in 1980.

Monken came to the banks of the Hudson River following a successful stint as head coach at Georgia Southern.

He spent four seasons as head coach at Georgia Southern after learning the triple-option offense under one of the nation's premier option proponents, Paul Johnson, during assistant coaching stints at Navy and Georgia Tech.

During his four seasons at Georgia Southern, Monken authored a 38-16 mark and spearheaded the programs transition to the elite Football Bowl Subdivision level from the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) ranks.

Georgia Southern, which joined the Sun Belt Conference following Monken's tenure, was a member of the FCS and qualified for the NCAA playoffs in all three eligible seasons under him, advancing to the national semifinals each year while posting double-digit victory totals.

Monken guided tradition-rich Georgia Southern to some of the biggest wins in school history, with the most memorable arguably a 26-20 victory at Florida in November at the vaunted "Swamp." Despite that headline-grabbing victory, Georgia Southern was not eligible for the FCS playoffs that season due to its transitional status.

Monken and Johnson are the only coaches in Georgia Southern school history to win at least 10 games in each of their first three seasons.

A finalist for the 2012 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award, Monken guided Georgia Southern to 10 wins his first season, 11 his second and 10 in his third. His 2013 squad posted a 7-4 mark, including the stunning, season-ending upset of Florida in Gainesville.

Under Monken's guidance, Georgia Southern was one of the top rushing teams at the FCS level, claiming the NCAA rushing title in 2012 at 399.36 yards per contest. Walter Payton Award candidate Jerick McKinnon and running back Dominique

COACH MONKEN ADDRESSING THE CORE OF CADETS PRIOR TO THE START OF THE ARMY-NAVY GAME ON DEC. 9, 2017

Swope established the NCAA record for rushing yards by teammates with 3,063.

Monken coached a lengthy list of all-stars, including the school's highest-ever National Football League draft choice, safety J.J. Wilcox, a third-round selection of the Dallas Cowboys in 2013.

In 2011, Georgia Southern was ranked No. 1 in both FCS polls for seven weeks and stopped Wofford, 31-10, to win its ninth Southern Conference championship. Five players were named All-America, Brent Russell was selected Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Monken earned conference Coach of the Year plaudits and Swope was named Southern Conference Freshman of the Year. Home playoff wins against Old Dominion and Maine were part of the Eagles' memorable 11-3 campaign.

Monken got off to a great start in his first year as Georgia Southern's head coach, knocking off top-ranked and previously unbeaten Appalachian State as part of a 10-5 season. Georgia Southern ended the season with three straight wins to qualify for the postseason and registered three playoff victories to advance to the national semifinals.

In addition to the success on the field, Monken helped Georgia Southern re-emerge academically with the team's cumulative grade point average ranking as the highest in school history in each of his first two seasons. Not only was Georgia Southern successful in the classroom and on the football field under Monken, but the players and staffs were part of several community service programs and local events.

Monken was named Georgia Southern's head coach in November of 2009, continuing a family history of football coaches. Jeff's father, Mike, and a dozen family members have coached at the high school, collegiate or professional levels.

Monken's first head coaching job came after accumulating 20 years of experience as an assistant, 13 of them with his mentor Johnson. Monken coached slotbacks at Georgia Southern from 1997 to 2001 before joining Johnson first at Navy and then Georgia Tech.

As an assistant coach at Georgia Southern, Monken was part of two NCAA FCS National Championship squads (1999 and 2000) and five straight playoff teams. Georgia Southern was among the top-five rushing teams in all five seasons and twice led the nation in rushing. The Eagles ranked in the top-15 in scoring four out of five seasons as well.

After serving as an assistant at Georgia Southern, Monken accepted a position on Johnson's coaching staff at Navy. Monken not only mentored slotbacks, he later added special teams coordinator duties.

In Annapolis, Monken helped the Midshipmen to five straight Commander in Chief trophies and five consecutive bowl appearances, including a 10-win season in 2004. Following his time at Navy, Monken moved to Georgia Tech where for two seasons he served as slotbacks coach and special teams coordinator. The Yellow Jackets posted double-digit wins in 2009 and captured the Atlantic Coast Conference championship, although that title was later vacated.

Monken began his coaching career in 1989 as a graduate assistant at the University Hawai'i and later spent one season at Arizona State University. Monken moved to University of Buffalo as the wide receivers and tight ends coach and also handled recruiting. He served on the staffs at Morton (Ill.) High School as head coach and at Concordia University in Illinois as the offensive line coach as well.

A native of Joliet, Ill, Monken played wide receiver for four years and earned two varsity letters in track and field while earning his bachelor's degree from Millikin University in 1989. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in October 2013 and collected his master's degree from Hawai'i in 1991.

Monken and his wife Beth reside at West Point with their three daughters, Isabelle, Amelia and Evangeline

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT JEFF MONKEN

"Jeff Monken is an outstanding football coach. He is a tireless worker who will do the right things to build a program and he will be a great leader. Jeff was a loyal assistant coach for me for many years and I'm excited for him and this opportunity." - Paul Johnson, Head Coach, Georgia Tech

"Jeff Monken is one of the bright young coaches in college football. He is a leader and is well prepared for this opportunity. Coach Monken and his teams will be outstanding representatives of the U.S. Military Academy on and off the field. Congratulations to Army for making an inspired choice." - Dan Radakovich, Director of Athletics, Clemson University

"Jeff is a terrific guy and an outstanding football coach. He and his family will be a great fit at West Point. Jeff will be the perfect leader to re-energize the Army football program and build support in the community." - Pete Lembo, Head Coach, Ball State

"The characteristics that make Jeff such a good coach is that he was one of those kids that was no great athlete but became a great player. He knew what it took to develop. When he worked his way into the Milliken Hall of Fame, they asked me some questions and I said it then too. He was one of those players who didn't have great speed, but was willing to catch the ball in the briar patch, in the middle of the field. And he was probably the best blocker we ever had. He was also one of those chemistry guys who made everyone around him better. That carried over into the coaching part. I had a chance to visit with him at Georgia Southern and I was able to observe. He is very detailed oriented. Very detailed. He is what I would call a 'coach's coach' and a 'player's coach' and that's rare. He is not wrapped up in the ego part of it. If he can help a player, he is going to help him. If he can help another coach, another high school or college coach, he is going to help him. He is unique and he is going to be successful at Army." - Carl Poelker, Former Head Coach, Millikin University

"He was a great coach, a great man. He loves his team, loves his family and loves the game. Coach is a great fit for Army. He knows how to win and he knows how to handle players. He makes you want to run through a brick wall for him." - J.J. Wilcox, Safety, Dallas Cowboys, four-year letterwinner at Georgia Southern

"Hire Jeff Monken from Georgia Southern and don't look back, Army. He understands the military system. He was an assistant at Navy for all those years they were riding roughshod. He understands how it works. He has a love of the military academy. The guy can coach. He digs the military, he understands it, he understands what's going on." - Charles Davis, FOX NFL Analyst

"While the entire Eagle Nation is sad to lose Coach Monken, we are equally proud of what he accomplished here and of his move to Army. As a coach, Jeff Monken is, in my opinion, the whole package. He obviously knows the Xs and Os of football. But the thing that impresses me most about Jeff is his devotion to developing the entire young man, not just the athlete. He always stresses excellence in both the classroom and on the gridiron, and he encourages community service every chance he gets. He is a strict disciplinarian but is also quick to praise a job well done. Family is first with Coach Monken, and his love for family carries over to his team in every way. It has been a rare privilege for me to work with Jeff Monken, and I will always consider him a first-class coach and a true friend." - Brooks Keel, President, Georgia Southern University

JAY BATEMAN

Assistant Coach
Defensive Coordinator
5th Season
Randolph-Macon, 1995

Jay Bateman is entering his fifth season as the defensive coordinator of the Army Football program in 2018.

In 2017, Bateman guided a defense that finished third in the nation in red zone defense and 14th in passing defense in the country. The defensive squad held opponents to 22 points per game and recorded a 21-0 victory at Air Force, stopping the Falcons' 306-game scoring streak. It was also the first shutout against a service-academy school for the Black Knights since 1969.

Alex Aukerman was a standout for the Black Knights in 2017 with 70 tackles, including 15.5 tackles for loss and seven sacks. Aukerman was 63rd in the nation in sacks per game at 0.54. Kenneth Brinson was also named a CoSIDA Academic All-American during 2017.

In his third year, he led a defense that ranked fourth nationally in total defense, including sixth against the pass and 18th versus the run. The defensive unit was also 16th in scoring defense, allowing 19 points per game.

Bateman's success on the sidelines in 2016 was noticed around the country as he was a candidate for the Broyles Award, which is given to the top assistant coach in the nation.

Senior linebackers Jeremy Timpf and Andrew King led the way in the middle. Timpf was 48th in the nation with 8.6 tackles per game, while King had 7.5 per contest. Army's passing defense went from six interceptions in 2015 to 17 in 2016. Rookie cornerback Elijah Riley led the team with three interceptions, while five others had a pair of picks.

In 2015 under Bateman, the defense held five opponents under 150 yards on the ground, picked off six passes and recorded five fumble recoveries.

That season Bateman coached King and Timpf to 92 total tackles to lead the team. King finished with 16.5 tackles for loss and averaged 1.4 per game, which was ranked 21st in the nation.

Cornerback Brandon Jackson led the team in interceptions with three and Bateman tutored Xavier Moss to 67 tackles in his first year on the defensive side after two years on offense. In total, the defense had 58 tackles for losses of 210 yards, including 15 sacks, and broke up 27 passes.

In his first season at Army West Point, Bateman guided a defense that intercepted 11 passes and recovered four fumbles.

Bateman began guiding Timpf that season, who made a team-high 117 tackles in his first year as a starter and was named to three different postseason all-star teams. Timpf also led the team with 79 solo tackles and 14.5 tackles for losses of 35 yards. He ranked seventh nationally in solo tackles per game at 6.6 and 23rd in total tackles per contest with 9.8.

In addition, defensive back Josh Jenkins intercepted a team-best four passes and was second on the team with 64 tackles. He was also honored on a trio of all-star teams.

Bateman also guided then first-year starter King to a 63-tackle season.

Army registered 55 tackles for losses of 179 yards, collected 10 quarterback sacks and broke up 33 passes in Bateman's first season calling the defense.

Bateman joined the Army coaching staff following three successful seasons as the defensive coordinator at Ball State University.

A 19-year coaching veteran, Bateman helped Ball State rank ninth nationally in turnovers gained with 31 and 12th in turnover margin at +0.9. In the Mid-American Conference, the team was third in scoring defense.

In his last three seasons at Ball State, Bateman mentored first-team All-MAC selection Jonathan Newsome as well as three second-team choices and helped two others earn third-team accolades.

Newsome was selected in the fifth round of the NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts with the 166th overall pick. He responded by leading all rookie defensive ends/outside linebackers with 6.5 quarterback sacks.

Bateman began his coaching career at Hampden-Sydney College in 1997 before moving to Siena College in 1999. After one season as an assistant, Bateman was elevated to head coach in 2000 and spent four seasons running the Saints' program.

In 2004, Bateman moved to the University of Richmond for a one-year stint before transitioning to Lehigh University in 2005 where Pete Lembo was the head coach. At Lehigh, Bateman helped tutor a defense that ranked sixth in the country.

Bateman then advanced to Elon University in 2006 and served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. He guided linebacker Chad Nkang to All-America status as well as Southern Conference Player of the Year honors. Nkang was drafted by the Jacksonville Jaguars. Elon won 35 games during Bateman's five seasons and collected at least one all-conference linebacker honor each season. Elon's defense ranked fourth nationally and led the Southern Conference in 2009 with just 248.33 yards allowed per contest.

Following his success at Elon, Bateman transitioned to the defensive coordinator role at Ball State. After a 6-6 season in 2011, Ball State won nine games in 2012 and 10 the next season while competing in the Beef O'Brady's St. Petersburg Bowl and the GoDaddy Bowl, respectively.

Bateman is a 1995 graduate of Randolph-Macon College. He and his wife, Heather, have a daughter, Bea and a son, C.J., and reside at West Point.

BRENT DAVIS

Assistant Coach
Offensive Coordinator
5th Season
Georgia, 1997

Brent Davis begins his fifth season with the Army Football program in 2018 as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

In 2017 under Davis' guidance, the Black Knights won the NCAA rushing title, averaging 362.3 yards per game and scored 50 rushing touchdowns to finish second in the nation and set a new program record. The Black Knights also led the country in total rushing yards with 4,710 on the year. Davis was honored as a nominee for the Broyles Award, which is given to the top assistant coach in the country.

Davis saw quarterback Ahmad Bradshaw break the single-season service-academy rushing record with 1,746 yards in 2017. The yardage was high enough for fifth in the country at the end of the year. Bradshaw finished sixth in the nation with 134.3 rushing yards per contest. He averaged an impressive 7.21 yards per carry, which was also in the top 10 nationally at eighth spot.

Offensive lineman Brett Toth was a participant in the Reese's Senior Bowl and the East-West Shrine Game following the 2017 season. Toth was also a member of the Associated Press All-Bowl Team, while linemate Bryce Holland was awarded with a spot on ESPN's All-Bowl Team as well.

The offensive unit ranked second in the nation in rushing offense with 339 rushing yards per game and a 5.6 yards per rush average. Army ran for over 500 yards twice in 2016 and racked up 4,412 total rushing yards, which was the third most in academy history for a single season.

Under Davis, the Black Knights ran for an academy record 46 touchdowns, which eclipsed the 1945 national championship team that had 45 that season.

Army saw fullback Andy Davidson and quarterback Ahmad Bradshaw run for over 900 yards. Davidson ran for 12 touchdowns for eighth all-time in a single season and the most since Trent Steelman had 12 in 2011.

Davis led the offense in 2015 that was 12th in the nation in rushing yards per game at 244.3.

He guided six players to 100-yard rushing games during the season, including two from Bradshaw and Aaron Kemper. Bradshaw and Chris Carter made their career debuts under Davis and ran and threw for 100 yards in their first game in an Army uniform.

The Black Knights' passing attack under Davis in 2015 saw Edgar Poe record two 100-yard receiving games, including 121 yards on five catches against Navy. Poe had six touchdowns, which was the most by an Army receiver since 2007.

In 2015 Davis coached Army to 34 total touchdowns with 24 on the ground and 338.2 yards per game for an average of 5.6 yards per play.

In his first season at Army, Davis guided an offense that was fifth in the country in rushing yards per game at 296.5.

Davis also tutored running back Larry Dixon, who rushed for 1,102 yards as a senior and for more than 3,000 yards for his career. Dixon was 39th in the nation in rushing yards during his final campaign and 40th in rushing yards per contest at 91.8.

Davis helped quarterback Angel Santiago rank 60th in the country with 10 rushing touchdowns.

As the primary play-caller, Davis led Army to 33 rushing touchdowns and 358.8 yards of total offense per contest that season.

Davis also worked with the offensive line, a unit that featured a different starting five on 10 occasions and still had Army among the nation's rushing leaders.

Center Matt Hugenberg was named to two different postseason all-star teams and Dixon collected honors for three different squads.

Prior to Army, Davis spent four seasons as Georgia Southern's offensive coordinator and also coached the offensive line in his second stint in Statesboro, Ga. A veteran triple option coordinator, Davis helped the Eagles to three consecutive trips to the national semifinals. Georgia Southern boasted the top rushing offense in two consecutive seasons in 2011 and 2012.

Davis also coached at Georgia Southern from 1997-05 when he guided the offensive line and running backs as the Eagles won seven conference championships and made eight playoff appearances. With Davis' charges blocking up front, Georgia Southern captured four consecutive FCS rushing titles as well as the 2004 scoring title with 47.0 points per contest. Eight linemen earned All-Southern Conference honors and three were voted All-American. Charles Clark won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 2002, presented to the best offensive lineman in the Southern Conference.

Davis guided the running backs from 1997-99 and worked with Adrian Peterson, the 1999 Walter Payton Award winner and SoCon Offensive Player of the Year. Peterson collected All-America honors and amassed over 2,600 yards in 15 games. Peterson was drafted in the sixth round by the Chicago Bears and played eight seasons in the NFL.

Davis later moved to coaching the offensive line before departing for Virginia Military Institute as its offensive coordinator. Davis spent four seasons at VMI, his final season as interim head coach, before returning to Georgia Southern.

The Keydets, running the triple option, led the Big South in rushing in all four of Davis' seasons. VMI established a conference-record 357.5 yards per game average in 2008, while the 2009 squad racked up 276.6 rushing yards per game. Both the 2008 and 2009 teams led the nation in rushing. In 2007, VMI produced four 500-plus yard games and ranked fourth in the nation in rushing and 34th in total offense.

Davis earned a pair of varsity letters at The Citadel as a tight end before transferring to the University of Georgia. He lettered and earned a spot on the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll before graduating from Georgia in 1997 with a degree in business management.

Davis and his wife Jen, a Georgia Southern graduate, reside at West Point.

KEVIN CORLESS

Assistant Coach
Inside Linebackers
5th Season
N.W. Missouri State, 1982

Kevin Corless is in his fifth season with the Army Football program as the inside linebackers coach.

Last season, with help from Corless, Army captured the Commander in Chief's Trophy for the first time since 1996 and won 10 games for only the second time in academy history.

Corless mentored James Nachtigal and Cole Christiansen into starting roles in 2017 after replacing Jeremy Timpf and Andrew King. Nachtigal finished with a team and career high 103 tackles, while Christiansen made 84 stops and recorded an interception.

In 2016, Corless had the chance to tutor the two team captains in Timpf and King. Timpf finished with 112 total tackles on the year, while King had 97 stops, including five sacks and 11 tackles for loss.

In 2015, under Corless' watch, King and Timpf led the team in tackles with 92 apiece. King was among the nation's leaders in tackles for loss with 16.5, which ranked 21st in the country.

In his first year at Army, Corless contributed to a defense that intercepted 11 passes and recovered four fumbles.

He was responsible for one of the youngest and most inexperienced position groups on the Black Knights.

Corless helped mentor Timpf, a first-year contributor who led the team with 117 tackles, 79 solo stops and 14.5 tackles for losses. Timpf ranked seventh nationally in solo tackles per game with 6.6, 23rd in the country in tackles per game at 9.8 and was honored on three postseason all-star teams.

He also assisted the development of King, a first-year starter who was third on the team with 63 tackles despite missing one game due to injury.

In addition, freshmen Tyler L'Hommedieu and Scott Washle along with sophomore Sean McBryde developed into consistent contributors.

Prior to Army, Corless spent two seasons at Georgia Southern. In 2012, he guided linebackers and then served as co-defensive coordinator with Jack Curtin in 2013.

The 2012 squad advanced to the FCS national semifinals and the 2013 squad beat Florida, but was not eligible for postseason play as the Eagles made the jump to FBS.

Prior to joining the Georgia Southern staff, Corless spent nine years at Arkansas State. He was the co-defensive coordinator for the first seven years before handling the defense solely his last two seasons. In addition, he oversaw the linebackers and punt return units.

During his tenure at Arkansas State, the defense finished among the top-40 FBS programs in at least one defensive category each season.

Rivals.com named Corless the Sun Belt `Defensive Coordinator of the Year' for the accomplishments of his 2009 Red Wolves' defense. That season capped a four-year run that saw the defense claim either first or second in each of the league's five major defensive statistical categories. ASU finished the 2008 season ranked in the top 20 for red zone defense and tackles for loss, but it was the upset of Texas A&M that earned national attention as linebacker Ben Owens intercepted an Aggie pass late in the game for the win.

In Corless' first season in 2002, ASU finished second in the Sun Belt Conference in five different categories, while the 2002 and 2004 squads posted national statistical rankings. The 2005 team won a Sun Belt championship and played in the New Orleans Bowl.

Corless has guided seven players who have been selected in the NFL draft since 1998, including second-round choice Tyrell Johnson, the 2007 Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Corless mentored Alex Carrington to the league's top defensive honor and a third-round selection by the Buffalo Bills. DeMario Davis is the most recent of Corless' charges to be drafted when he was chosen in the third round by the New York Jets in 2012. He guided 10 All-Sun Belt Conference linebackers and three Freshmen All-America choices.

Prior to West Point, Loose spent 14 seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Lafayette. Before that, he coached the junior varsity team, linebackers, outside linebackers and secondary during an eight-season stint on the banks of the Hudson. He returned in 2013 and now coaches the safeties.

Last season, with help from Loose, the Black Knights brought home the Commander in Chief's Trophy for the first time since 1996 and won 10 games for only the second time in academy history.

Loose helped guide a secondary that ranked 14th in the nation against the pass in 2017. He coached James Gibson into a starting role at safety, while Rhyan England was back for his senior season. Gibson was instrumental in Army's success with 45 total stops, including a game-saving stop against Eastern Michigan on a two-point conversion that sealed the Black Knights' victory over the Eagles. England missed a few games due to injury, but had 33 tackles and one fumble recovery. Max Regan, who saw significant time with England injured, made 33 stops along with a team-leading two interceptions and a fumble recovery. He returned one of the interceptions for a touchdown in the 49-12 victory over Rice.

In 2016, he tutored senior Xavier Moss and England to 57 and 53 tackles, respectively. The pair also had two interceptions on the year. Moss led the team with five pass breakups and had an interception and a forced fumble in the win over Navy.

Loose was part of a defensive staff that guided Army to fourth in the nation in total defense and sixth against the pass. Army improved from six interceptions in 2015 to 17 in 2016.

In 2012, Lafayette featured four All-Patriot League selections, while the 2010 squad boasted three all-league choices.

The American Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year in 2008, Loose and his wife, Marianne, started Lauren's First and Goal Foundation. MITCH WARE

Assistant Coach
Quarterbacks
5th Season
S.W. Missouri State, 1980

Mitch Ware is in his fifth season as a member of the Army Football program where he is responsible for the quarterbacks.

In 2017, with help from Ware, Army captured the Commander in Chief's Trophy for the first time since 1996 and won 10 games for only the second time in academy history.

Last year, Ware saw quarterback Ahmad Bradshaw break the single-season service-academy rushing record with 1,746 yards. The yardage was high enough for fifth in the country at the end of the year. Bradshaw finished sixth in the nation with 134.3 rushing yards per contest. He averaged an impressive 7.21 yards per carry, which was also in the top 10 nationally at eighth spot.

Kelvin Hopkins Jr., made an impact at the quarterback position in 2017, leading the Black Knights on a game-tying scoring drive in the final minutes against Temple to force overtime and allow Army to win and become bowl eligible.

Ware coached Bradshaw to 824 yards rushing and over 700 yards passing in his junior season. Bradshaw orchestrated an 80-yard game-winning drive against Navy in the fourth quarter to give Army its first win since 2001. Bradshaw also ran for 129 yards against North Texas in the Heart of Dallas Bowl, which was a bowl record and the second-most rushing yards by a quarterback in the history of the Cotton Bowl Stadium.

In 2015, Ware tutored three different quarterbacks that started a game for the Black Knights. Bradshaw and Chris Carter made their Army debuts in 2015 and both ran and threw for 100 yards in their first start as a Black Knight. A.J Schurr filled in against Eastern Michigan and led Army to its best offensive output in its history with over 600 yards of offense.

In his first season at Army West Point, Ware help lead a rushing offense that ranked fifth in the country at 296.5 yards per contest. Under Ware's tutelage, Angel Santiago and Schurr combined for 13 rushing touchdowns. Santiago was second on the squad with 814 rushing yards, while Schurr gained 320. The duo combined to complete 47 of 98 passes with a touchdown pass apiece.

Ware came to West Point from Georgia Southern where he was assistant head coach in 2012, his eighth season on the Eagles' staff. During his tenure in Statesboro, Ga., Ware was responsible for coaching the quarterbacks.

During the 2013 campaign, Ware mentored quarterback Jerick McKinnon to a tremendous season and an invitation to a showcase bowl event. McKinnon, despite playing in only 10 games, led the team in rushing attempts (161), rushing yards (1,050) and touchdowns (12). He averaged 105 yards per contest and 6.5 yards per carry and was invited to the prestigious Senior Bowl. He connected on 8-of-17 passes for 171 yards with four touchdowns and just one interception.

McKinnon finished third all-time on the Georgia Southern career rushing list with 3,899 yards. Backup quarterback Kevin Ellison was second on the squad with 127 rushing attempts for 886 yards. He completed 41-of-79 passes for 756 yards and two scores.

Ware helped Georgia Southern to three-straight trips to the national semifinals and an upset win at Florida.

Ware served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2002-05 and helped Georgia Southern lead the FCS in rushing offense all four years. In his first season, Ware developed first-year starter Chaz Williams into an Associated Press All-America selection and finalist for the prestigious Walter Payton Award. From his quarterback position, Williams ran for 1,422 yards and 27 touchdowns while being named conference player of the year. Fullback Jeremaine Austin, another first-year starter, rushed for 1,416 yards and was named conference rookie of the year.

The following season, Georgia Southern averaged 335.6 rushing yards per game and led the nation as Austin earned Player of the Year and All-America honors.

In 2004, Georgia Southern again led the country in rushing at 369.9 yards per contest and ranked third nationally in yards per game.

Prior to his work with Georgia Southern, Ware coached at Navy for four seasons. While in Annapolis, Md., Ware guided Brian Madden, who nearly rushed for and passed for 1,000 yards with 905 yards on the ground and 902 through the air.

Ware spent 16 seasons at Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State) where he was a player, assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Ware was a four-year starter and co-captain as a quarterback at Southwest Missouri State. He helped the team to its last Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association Championship in 1978 and was named the league's most valuable player as a senior in 1979. He established seven school records during his playing days, was chosen as an Associated Press honorable mention All-America and received the prestigious NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship.

After his playing career, Ware served as a graduate assistant for two seasons at his alma mater before moving into a full-time coaching role. He developed quarterback DeAndre Smith, the Gateway Football Conference's Offensive Player-of-the-Decade for 1985-94.

TUCKER WAUGH

Assistant Coach
Slot Backs
17th Season
DePauw, 1993

Tucker Waugh is in his 17th season as a member of the Army Football coaching staff. After serving as wide receivers coach in 2014, Waugh returns to coach the slotbacks for the fourth season.

Waugh coached at Army from 2000-04, departed for Stanford and returned to West Point after coaching the wide receivers in California.

Under Waugh's guidance, Army has been among the nation's top rushing teams in each of the last seven years.

Last season, with help from Waugh, the Black Knights brought home the Commander in Chief's Trophy for the first time since 1996 and won 10 games for only the second time in academy history.

The Black Knights won the NCAA rushing title, averaging 362.3 yards per game and scored 50 rushing touchdowns to finish second in the nation and set a new program record. Army also led the country in total rushing yards with 4,710 on the year.

Waugh tutored a group of slotbacks that was led by Kell Walker, who finished with a career high 629 rushing yards and six touchdowns. He averaged 7.3 yards per carry during the 2017 season, which was the best average on the team. Walker recorded two 100-yard rushing games, including a career best 129 and three scores in a 42-19 win at Rice. Walker was also Army's top receiver with 111 yards on the season.

In 2016, Army was ranked second in the nation in rushing offense and was helped by slot backs Jordan Asberry, Walker and Tyler Campbell. Asberry led the group with 421 yards and five touchdowns. Walker came on strong at the end of the year and proved to be pivotal in wins over Navy and North Texas at the Heart of Dallas Bowl. Campbell was steady all season with 326 yards on the ground and two scores.

In 2015, he guided then sophomore John Trainor to an average of 8.7 yards per carry and two rushing touchdowns. Trainor was also Army's top receiver out of the backfield with eight catches for 176 yards and a touchdown. Then junior Joe Walker racked up 203 yards on the ground on 27 carries that season as well.

Waugh tutored a pair of rookies in Asberry and Campbell that made significant contributions throughout the 2015 season. Asberry had 30 carries for 213 yards, while Campbell had 118 yards on 17 rushes, including a 29-yard touchdown run in the Army-Navy Game.

In 2013, Army racked up 3,950 yards rushing and 4,678 yards of total offense. Waugh mentored freshman wide receiver Xavier Moss, who established an Army rookie record with 35 receptions. The total shattered the previous mark of 20 set by Jeremy Trimble in 2004, which was also set under Waugh's guidance. Moss led the team with an Army freshman record of 463 receiving yards.

Waugh has also mentored two-time 1,000-yard rusher Raymond Maples, one of just three players to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark twice in their career, and was part of the 2010 staff that led Army to a victory in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl.

In 2008, Waugh's first season coaching running backs in Army's triple-option system, he guided fullback Collin Mooney to a record-breaking season of 1,339 yards. Mooney had just 22 rushing yards prior to establishing the Academy single-season record.

Waugh was a member of Bobby Ross' coaching staff and then departed the Academy to work with head coach Walt Harris at Stanford in 2005.

At Stanford, Waugh coached NFL All-Pro Richard Sherman to Freshman All-America honors as a wide receiver with the Cardinal. He had 34 catches for 581 yards during the 2006 season.

In 2008, Waugh was recognized as one of the up-and-coming assistants in the nation. He was chosen to attend the NCAA Expert Coaches Forum in Dallas, Texas. The Forum is designed to improve and reinforce various aspects of securing, managing and excelling in head football coaching positions at the intercollegiate level. In 2009, Rivals.com named Waugh one of its top 10 recruiters among all non-Bowl Championship Series schools.

When Waugh first arrived at Army, he inherited a group of receivers that had caught a total of 14 career passes. Over the next three years, his Black Knight wideouts registered 322 receptions. During that time, he oversaw the development of Aaron Alexander, who graduated in 2005 ranking second on Army's career charts for both receptions and receiving yards. Waugh mentored Alexander to an Academy-record 64 catches in 2003. His 861 receiving yards that season ranked third on the Army ledger at that time.

Prior to arriving at West Point, Waugh coached for five seasons at Illinois State (1995-99). He worked with the Redbirds' outside linebackers in 1995, running backs in 1996 and wide receivers his final three years. He mentored an All-Gateway Conference selection during each of his three seasons as receivers coach, with Marquis Mosely earning recognition in 1997 and Ricky Garrett copping laurels in both 1998 and 1999.

Waugh helped to establish the Redbirds' passing attack as one of the most prolific in the nation. Illinois State advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs in 1998 and reached the Division I-AA national semifinals in 1999.

A 1993 graduate of DePauw University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in English Composition and Physical Education, Waugh began his coaching career at Otterbein College in 1993 overseeing the Cardinals' quarterbacks. He returned to his alma mater in 1994 as a wide receivers coach. He also completed a coaching fellowship with the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League.

Waugh lettered at quarterback while playing at DePauw from 1990 to 1992 and was named the school's "Outstanding Physical Education Major."

Waugh resides at West Point with his wife, Jen, and sons, Jackson and Nicholas.

The defensive squad held opponents to 22 points per game and recorded a 21-0 victory at Air Force, stopping the Falcons' 306-game scoring streak. It was also the first shutout against a service-academy school for the Black Knights since 1969.

He guided team captain John Voit in 2017 to 31 tackles, including 7.5 tackles for loss, which was third on the team. Voit finished with 5.5 sacks on the season to finish second on the Black Knights. First-year starter Wunmi Oyetuga recorded 28 tackles from his defensive line position and had three tackles for loss.

In his first season at Army, Wilt tutored Voit to six tackles for loss along with three sacks and 26 total tackles. As a unit, the defensive line allowed only 3.9 yards per rush and ranked 18th in the nation in rushing defense at 121 yards per game allowed.

Wilt arrived at West Point after two seasons at the University of Maryland as the defensive line coach with the Terrapins.

In 2015, the defensive line under Wilt totaled 31.5 of the teams 35 sacks, which ranked 14th in the country. Two players from the line were selected in the 2016 National Football League Draft. Yannick Ngakoue was a third round selection by the Jacksonville Jaguars and Quinton Jefferson was picked by the Seattle Seahawks in the fifth round.

Ngakoue set the school record for sacks in a season with 13.5 and was second in the nation. He was named first team All-Big Ten. Jefferson was named honorable mention All-Big Ten under Wilt and was selected to play in the Reese's Senior Bowl.

In his first season at Maryland, Wilt tutored one of the best pass rushers in school history in Andre Monroe. The senior totaled 10.5 sacks to finish second in the Big Ten and earned second team all-conference honors from the media and honorable mention all-conference honors from the league's coaches. Monroe set the school's all-time sack record with 25.0.

Wilt also helped nose tackle Darius Kilgo achieve career highs in tackles (43) and tackles for loss (8.0). The senior finished the season tied for first in the Big Ten with four fumble recoveries and earned honorable mention All-Big Ten recognition from the media.

Kilgo was selected in the 2015 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos. It marked the second straight year a player coached by Wilt was chosen in the NFL Draft. Jonathan Newsome, who Wilt coached at Ball State, was picked in the 2014 NFL Draft and was second in the NFL among rookies with 6.5 sacks in 2014.

Prior to Maryland, he spent three seasons as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Ball State. He worked with a defensive unit that improved each of his three seasons in Muncie, Ind.

In his final season at Ball State, the Cardinals improved from 13th in total defense in the MAC in 2011 to seventh in 2013. In addition, the Cardinals' rushing defense and sack totals improved each year. The Cardinals ranked 13th in the MAC in Wilt's first season before improving to seventh in total defense, while the sacks totals increased from 16 (2011) to 27 (2013).

Newsome was named to the All-Mid-American Conference first team after he finished with 10 sacks, the second highest total in the MAC, and 11.5 tackles for loss.

Defensive tackle Nathan Ollie joined Newsome on the All-MAC squad. Ollie earned second- team honors after posting 10.0 TFL as the Cardinals earned a berth to the GoDaddy Bowl.

In 2012, Wilt helped Newsome garner second team all-conference accolades after ranking fourth in the MAC with 8.5 sacks and racking up 12.5 TFL, while Ollie picked up third-team honors after being named to the second team in 2011. The Cardinals concluded the season with a trip to the Beef 'O' Brady Bowl.

Prior to his stint with Ball State, Wilt spent one season with the University of Richmond as a defensive line coach and helped Martin Parker earn All-American honors after totaling 14 TFL and 5.5 sacks.

Wilt coached the defensive line during the 2009 season at Virginia. He oversaw the development of All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection Nate Collins, who signed with the Chicago Bears prior to the start of the 2010 NFL season.

From 2006 through 2008, Wilt served as the defensive line coach and special teams coordinator at Liberty. During his tenure the Flames won two Big South Conference titles, and he coached five student-athletes who received All-America recognition.

Quality Control Coach
3rd Season
College of Mount St. Joseph, 2011

Patrick Tresey enters his third season on the Army West Point football staff as the offensive quality control coach.

In 2017, with help from Tresey, Army captured the Commander in Chief's Trophy for the first time since 1996 and won 10 games for only the second time in academy history. Tresey was part of the offensive coaching staff that helped Army capture the rushing title, averaging 362.3 yards per game in 2017.

Tresey came to West Point after two years at Kenyon College. In 2015, he was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach and was promoted to that position after a year as the wide receiver coach and passing game coordinator.

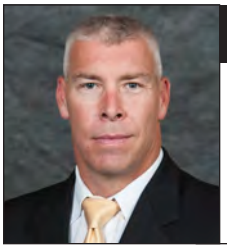
The Lords were first in the North Coast Athletic Conference in sacks against and time of possession under Tresey as offensive coordinator. In his first year, he set up a passing game that allowed starting quarterback Jake Bates to set the Kenyon single-season record for completion percentage.

Prior to Kenyon, he spent two seasons at nearby Ashland University, where he worked with the Eagles' offense as a graduate assistant. In those two seasons, the Eagles posted a combined 16-6 record and averaged over 35 points and 417 yards per game.

Prior to his stint at Ashland, Tresey spent a season as the offensive graduate assistant coach at UCLA. In that role he assisted in preparation of the weekly game plan, organized and coached the defensive scout team, prepared and reviewed film with the offensive staff, updated and maintained the offensive playbook, and directed tight end meetings during bowl practice week.

Tresey got his start in coaching at his alma mater, College of Mount St. Joseph in 2010. He was an offensive assistant with that program. He also collected previous coaching experience at a number of football camps, including The Ohio State Football Camp for four years.

During his playing days at College of Mount St. Joseph, Tresey was named to both all-conference and all-academic teams. He graduated in 2011 with a degree in sports management.



SCOTT SWANSON

Head Coach
Strength & Conditioning
23rd Season
Wake Forest, 1992

An important cog in the physical development of Army's varsity athletes, Scott Swanson is in his 23rd year at Army West Point. He serves as an Assistant Athletic Director/ Director of Strength and Conditioning.

A 1992 graduate of Wake Forest University, Swanson spent the 1995 and 1996 football campaigns as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Army before departing to serve in the same capacity at Stanford University. He returned one year later in 1998 to take over the Black Knights' head job.

Since his return to the Academy, Army has captured countless league championships and sent numerous teams to postseason competition, while Black Knight athletes have secured a host of All-America certificates since 1998.

Swanson oversees the unique task of training cadet-athletes at West Point. He directs the training of 1,000 athletes, operates three weight rooms and manages five off-site facilities throughout the country during summer assignments.

The Parkersburg, W.Va., native was instrumental in the development of Army's vast strength development center housed in the Kimsey Athletic Center, which opened in April 2003. The Kimsey Athletic Center houses coaches' offices, spacious locker rooms, equipment rooms, an athletic training area, meeting space and an athletic hall of fame area. But perhaps the crown jewel of the building is its 20,000-square-foot strength development center that is under Swanson's direction.

This area features state-of-the-art equipment to accentuate the overall development of a host of Army athletes, but most notably serves football.

His main duty is overseeing the total strength and conditioning program for Army's 28 intercollegiate sports programs and directly oversees men's basketball and lacrosse.

Swanson is a Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association and was named a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach in 2005. He is also a CGFI, CrossFit Level 1 instructor and member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Swanson resides at West Point with his son, Thor.

ARMY AND NAVY WILL MEET FOR THE 119TH TIME ON DECEMBER 8 IN PHILADELPHIA

- ►The storied Army-Navy rivalry will enjoy its 119th edition this season when the Black Knights and Midshipmen play on Dec. 8 at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia. Only 10 Division I-A rivalries have featured more games than the Army-Navy series.
- ► This revered series began when Cadet Dennis Mahan Michie accepted a "challenge" from Naval Academy Midshipmen for a football game against the Cadets. That first contest was held on "The Plain" at West Point on Nov. 29, 1890. The more experienced Mids, who had been playing organized football since 1879, defeated the Cadets 24-0.
- ►Eighty-seven of the 118 Army-Navy games have been played within Philadelphia city limits. The 2016 installment of the game in Baltimore, Md., marked only the 10th time the Army-Navy Classic was played outside Philadelphia since 1945. The 1983 game was played at the Rose Bowl, while the 1989, 1993, 1997 and 2001 confrontations took place at Giants Stadium. M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore played host to the classic in 2000, 2007 and 2014. The 2012 game at FedEx Field was the first to be hosted by the Washington, D.C. area.
- ►There has been 15 different sites since the birth of the series in 1890. Those sites follow: West Point (3), Annapolis (3), Palmer Stadium (1), Franklin Field (18), Polo Grounds (9), Baltimore Stadium (2), Soldier Field (1), Yankee Stadium (2), Municipal/John F. Kennedy Stadium (41), Veterans Stadium (17), Rose Bowl (1), Giants Stadium (4), M&T Bank Stadium (2), Lincoln Financial Field (9) and FedEx Field (1).
- ►The Army-Navy series has been tied on 13 occasions (five times since 1979). The latest tie came following Navy's victory in 2004. The Mids' win in 2005 gave Navy its first edge in the series since 1993. Until winning in 1980 to break a 37-37-6 stalemate, Navy had not led in the series standing since 1921, after just the 24th meeting between the academies.
- ► Further evidence of the rivalry's competitive nature: only 377 points (3.2 ppg) separate the teams through the Classic's initial 118 pairings. Navy has scored 1,864 points (15.8), while Army has recorded 1,497 points (12.7).
- ►CBS Sports reaffirmed its committment to broadcasting the storied rivalry to a national audience with a new agreement until 2028. The Army-Navy Game presented by USAA will be the only college football game contested on the second Saturday in December, a departure from its recent history of being played a week earlier opposite several conference championship contests.
- ► The United States Military Academy and United States Naval Academy announced in July 2009 that financial services leader USAA signed a 10-year agreement to be the presenting sponsor of the annual Army-Navy football game. USAA is among the premier providers of banking products, insurance, investments, and financial planning to current and former members of the U.S. military and their families – including the Cadets and Midshipmen from the two academies.

Service academy supremacy is at stake on the gridiron each season when Army, Navy and Air Force battle in a round-robin schedule for the Commander in Chief's Trophy.

This year, the Trophy enters its 47th season as the pre-eminent indicator of football bragging rights among the three major service academies.

Army's most recent Commander in Chief's Trophy title dates back to last season, when the Black Knights assured that the Trophy would return to its original home by defeating arch-rival Navy 14-13 at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia in a blizzard.

To help commemorate the Trophy's 25th birthday, President Bill Clinton was on hand at "The Vet" to present the Black Knights with the glimmering silver Trophy following their come-from-behind victory. It marked the first time that a standing President attended an Army-Navy clash since Gerald Ford looked on in 1974 to see Navy defeat Army 19-0.

Former President George W. Bush witnessed the Army-Navy game in person three times during his two terms in office, attending the classic in 2001, 2004 and 2008.

Prior to 1996, Army had last acquired sole possession of the Trophy in 1988. In 1993, each team split its two academy games, marking only the fourth time that all three teams shared possession of the Trophy.

Army captured the inaugural Commander in Chief's Trophy by defeating Air Force, 17-14, and Navy, 23-15, in 1972.

The Trophy has resided at West Point in 1972, 1977, 1984, 1986, 1988, 1996, and 2017.

Navy, which ruled the 1970s, has acquired sole ownership of the trophy nine times since 1981. The Mids captured the hardware seven straight seasons from 2003-09 before Air Force claimed the trophy in 2010, 2011 and won it in 2014, after Navy won two straight.

The Trophy is named in honor of the President of the United States as commander in chief of the armed forces. The three-sided structure, which weighs 170 pounds and stands 2 1/2 feet tall, is engraved with the seal of each academy and displays a reproduction of each school's mascot. The year in which the Trophy is won is engraved on the appropriate academy's side.

The idea for the establishment of an interservice football trophy originated with the late Gen. George B. Simler, commander of the Air Training Command and a former Air Force Academy athletic director. The 1972 season was seen as an appropriate time to consider such an idea since it also marked the first season of the round-robin competition among the three teams.

Simler proposed the idea to the USAFA Association of Graduates early in 1972. The Association, in turn, proposed the project to the alumni associations at West Point and Annapolis as suitable for joint sponsorship by the three institutions. Following formal adoption of the project, designs for the Trophy were sought from manufacturers.

After Army's inaugural title in 1972, Navy captured possession of the Trophy eight of the following nine years before Air Force first staked claim to the honor in 1982. The Trophy remained in the Falcons' possession the following season when they swept the Black Knights and Midshipmen.

Army recaptured the Trophy in 1984, its first outright title since 1977.

The Black Knights begin the quest for this year's

CIC title on Nov. 3 when they host Air Force. Army will then square off against Navy on Dec. 8 in Phildelphia.

ARMY CHARGES PAST RAMS IN SEASON OPENER

WEST POINT, N.Y. – The 2017 Army West Point football season opened up in thrilling fashion as the Black Knights put up the second-most points in a season opener with a 64-6 victory over Fordham on Friday night at Michie Stadium.

Army controlled the game from the start by utilizing a consistent running game propelled by Ahmad Bradshaw and Darnell Woolfolk. The two combined for 272 yards on 19 rushing attempts and three touchdowns. The Black Knights abandoned the passing game and hit the ground hard for 513 yards on 49 plays with 15 different ball carriers.

Army was tasked with containing a Fordham offense that features a standout tailback and a seasoned quarterback. The defense did not disappoint, holding the Rams to their fewest point total since Sept. 12, 2015, when Fordham fell 14-7 to Villanova.

The Black Knights' defense also recorded an interception, blocked an extra point and a field goal, while also forcing and recovering a fumble.

ARMY HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES

• Ahmad Bradshaw dashed for a career-long 71-yard run in the second quarter, before setting a new career high in rushing yards for the game with 177 yards.
• He ran for multiple touchdowns for the second time in his career.
• Rookies Artice Hobbs IV and Fred Cooper Jr. scored their first-career touchdowns.
• The last time Army blocked a field goal, was when John Voit swatted one against Bucknell
• The last time the Black Knights did not complete a pass in a game was in a 48-21 loss to Ball St. (9/24/11).
• The 64 points was the most scored by Army in its all-time series history against Fordham.
• It was the second-most scored in an Army season opener since 1955.
• Eight different Black Knights scored in the game, including seven different ball carriers.

TURNING POINT

• Andrew McLean blocked a Fordham 24-yard field goal attempt which was returned 75 yards by Jalen Sharp for the touchdown to put Army ahead, 28-0.

HOW IT HAPPENED

• Fordham started with the ball and it was an undisciplined start for the Rams, committing three penalties on the opening drive before being forced to punt deep in their own territory.
• Army capitalized on the advantageous field positioning and needed just two plays to get on the board after Woolfolk scampered 39 yards untouched for the score.
• On the Black Knights' second drive, Army cruised down the field and Ahmad Bradshaw took off to his left with the ball in his hands on the Fordham 13 before flipping it to John Trainor to extend the lead.
• Backed up on their own 22, staring at fourth down with one yard to go, the Rams went for it and a high snap resulted in Fordham turning the ball over on downs and an eventual Army score.
• Fordham found success on its opening drive of the second quarter and got inside the red zone, setting up a field goal attempt. However, it was blocked and returned 75 yards by Jalen Sharp to maintain the shutout.
• The Rams would get a second chance inside the red zone, though, and capitalized close to the goal line when Edmonds punched in a score from six yards out.
• The Black Knights quickly countered with a score of their own on a career-long 71-yard run by Bradshaw.
• In the third quarter, Army picked off Kevin Anderson on the Rams' side of the field and Andy Davidson rushed twice for a combined 11 yards, including a one-yard touchdown to put the Black Knights up, 44-6.
• Army would later add scores from Fred Cooper Jr., Artice Hobbs IV and Zack Boobas to close things out and seal the win for the Black Knights.

BEYOND THE BOX SCORE

- Army won its third season opener under head coach Jeff Monken and have earned wins in the last two.
- The 64 points scored were the second most for a season opener in Academy history.
- Eight different players had touchdowns in the win.
- Bradshaw set a new career high in rushing yards with 177
- Army allowed just 66 yards rushing and it was the first time holding a team under 100 since the Heart of Dallas Bowl last year.
- Army did not complete a pass (2 attempts) for the first time since a contest at Ball State on Sept. 24, 2011.

FOURTH-QUARTER RALLY PUSHES ARMY PAST BULLS

WEST POINT, N.Y. – A pair of fourth-quarter rushing touchdowns by junior Darnell Woolfolk propelled the Army West Point football team to a come-from-behind 21-17 victory over Buffalo on Saturday afternoon at Michie Stadium.

The win over Buffalo pushes the Black Knights to a 2-0 mark, while the Bulls slide to 0-2.

Despite trailing for most of the contest, Army stuck with the ground game and leaned heavily on senior quarterback Ahmad Bradshaw and Woolfolk. The two combined for 46 carries, 238 rushing yards and all three of Army scores.

After allowing 17 first-half points, the Army defense buckled down and pieced together a solid second half. Over the final 30 minutes of play, Buffalo was only to manufacture 16 total plays on three drives that resulted in just 48 yards.

HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES
• Army starts a season 2-0 in back-to-back years for the first time since the 1979 and 1980 seasons.
• Senior quarterback Ahmad Bradshaw completed his first pass of the 2017 campaign, connecting with Jordan Asberry for an 18-yard reception in the first quarter.
• Bradshaw recorded a rush over 50 yards for the second consecutive game.
• Bradshaw rushed for over 100 yards in back-to-back games for the first time since the opening two games of the 2015 season.
• Woolfolk recorded the third multi-touchdown game of his career.
• For the second straight week, sophomore Jaylon McClinton forced a turnover.
• Army has yet to allow any points in the second half this season.

TURNING POINT
• The Bulls were threatening to score on the Army 16 before McClinton sacked the Bulls' quarterback and stripped the ball. Andrew McClean then jumped on the loose ball, setting up Army's 16-play, 79-yard touchdown drive to pull within three, 17-14.

HOW IT HAPPENED
• Buffalo started with the ball and, following a 52-yard pass and catch, the Bulls were inside the red zone. They were held out of the end zone, however, and limited to just a field goal on the game's opening drive.
• Army quickly countered and on the ensuing drive, a 52-yard Bradshaw rush set up the Black Knights for an eventual one-yard rushing score by the senior quarterback
• Entering the second quarter trailing 7-3, Buffalo needed just three plays to retake the lead as quarterback Tyree Jackson tucked the ball to his side and broke off a 75-yard rush to give the Bulls the 10-7 edge.
• The Black Knights came up short on their next possession, turning the ball over on downs in Buffalo territory. The Bulls regained possession and capitalized on a pair of big plays. Two consecutive completions for a combined 65 yards led to another touchdown for the visitors.
• While both sides were held scoreless in the third quarter, Army scored on the first play of the final period with a one-yard touchdown from Woolfolk that capped a 15-play, 78 yard drive.
• Following a short drive by the Bulls, the Black Knights got the ball back and rushed 12 times before punching it into the end zone for the one-yard, go-ahead touchdown by Woolfolk. •
• After retaking the lead at 21-17, Army's defense forced a three-and-out and forced the Bulls to give the ball back with 3:14 left to play. The Black Knights ran down the clock, but a fourth-and-five brought the punt team onto the field. Nick Schrage received the ball and took off to his right, fooling the Buffalo defense and scampered for a first down to seal the win for the Black Knights.

BLACK KNIGHTS COME UP SHORT AGAINST #8 OHIO STATE

COLUMBUS, Ohio – The Army West Point football team put up a good fight against the No. 8 team in the nation on Saturday, but Ohio State was ultimately too much to handle as the Black Knights fell 38-7.

Darnell Woolfolk punched in Army's lone touchdown of the game in the second quarter. His 3-yard rush cut the Buckeyes' lead in half at 14-7. That scoring drive was especially impressive as the Black Knights went 99 yards on 18 plays to eat up 9:37 off the clock. The junior also converted on a 4th-and-1 from the Army 39 to keep the drive alive earlier in the possession.

Woolfolk finished as the Black Knights' leading rusher for the first time this season after compiling 74 rushing yards against the Buckeyes. In the passing game, senior quarterback Ahmad Bradshaw went 2-of-7 for 19 yards, while adding 50 yards on the ground.

Jaylon McClinton led the Army defense with eight tackles and six solo shots. Rhyan England and Cole Christiansen followed with 5.5 tackles each, while John Voit and James Nachtigal posted one sack apiece.

Army was outrushed for the first time this season, 270-259. The Buckeyes picked up 30 first downs to just 16 for Army. Ohio State also won the battle in total offensive yards, 586-278.

The Black Knights finished 3-of-4 on fourth-down conversions and 4-of-15 on third downs. The Black Knights held the Buckeyes to just 4-of-8 on third downs.

ARMY HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES

- Saturday's game marked the first all-time meeting between Army and Ohio State.
- The contest was also the largest non-Navy game crowd the Black Knights have played in front of in program history. There were 108,414 in attendance.
- Woolfolk scored his team-leading fourth touchdown of the season.
- Army tied a school record with a 99-yard scoring drive in the second quarter.
- That drive was also the longest that Ohio State has given up in program history.
- Kelvin Hopkins Jr. came in to throw his first pass of the 2017 season in the first quarter.
- Zack Saum caught his first career pass in the opening frame.
- Andy Davidson had a season-long rush of 37 yards, while also accumulating a season-best 54 yards rushing on the day.
- England posted a season-high seven tackles before leaving the game with an injury.
- Nachtigal recorded his first sack of the year.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- On the game's opening possession, Ohio State used an eight-play, 75-yard drive that ate up 2:37 to give itself an early 7-0 lead.
- After starting on its own 18, Army began its first drive of the game. The Black Knights rushed for 19, 4, 12 and 3 yards over the next four plays before being stopped at the Buckeyes 44-yard line. Unfortunately, that would be all Army would gain on the drive.
- A Zach Potter 38-yard punt forced the Buckeyes to begin their second possession of the game from their own six. However, Ohio State finished off another scoring drive, using 4:12 of the clock, after J.K Dobbins punched it in from two yards out to cap a 13-play, 94-yard scoring drive.
- The Black Knights finally got things rolling with one minute remaining in the opening period. After a 33-yard punt by Drue Christmas that placed the ball at Army's own one-yard line, the Black Knights strung together a more than impressive 18-play, 99-yard scoring drive that took 9:37. Woolfolk recorded Army's lone touchdown after muscling his way into the end zone from three-yards out. Blake Wilson knocked in the point after to pull Army to within 14-7.
- Two highlights from that drive were Army's 4th-and-1 conversion from its own 39 and two third downs of seven yards late to keep the possession alive.
- Ohio State regrouped and worked its way down to the Army 15. The Black Knights were able to keep the Buckeyes out of the end zone though after forcing them to throw two incomplete passes, while also notching a sack for a loss of one yard. Ohio State settled for a 33-yard field goal to take a 17-7 lead into the break.
- Army received the ball to kick off the second half and worked its way down to the Ohio State 23-yard line. Unfortunately, the Buckeyes tackled Kell Walker for a loss of three to force the Black Knights into a long field goal attempt. Wilson's 43-yard try sailed just wide and Army would fail to convert any points on the play.
- On the ensuing possession, Ohio State started its drive with a 22-yard rush from Dobbins to push the ball to the Buckeye 48. Dobbins then broke free for a 52-yard touchdown run to extend the home team's edge to 24-7.
- The Buckeyes kicked off and Walker returned it a career-long 43 yards to put the Black Knights in good field possession. The sophomore started that return from the Army 1-yard line and weaved around multiple blockers for his long scamper.
- A few plays later though, the Black Knights fumbled after a loss of two and turned the ball over at the Buckeyes 36-yard line for the game's only turnover.
- Ohio State used three plays to move the ball to the Army 20, before J.T. Barrett connected with Terry McLaurin for a 20-yard touchdown reception to push the Buckeyes advantage to 31-7.
- The home team strung together one final scoring drive in the final frame after taking over the ball on downs following a missed conversion by Army on 4th-and-2 from the Ohio State 30. The Buckeyes saw Barrett team up with Austin Mack for a 9-yard touchdown reception with 7:01 remaining in the game. That score created a 38-7 gap between the teams.

TULANE EDGES ARMY IN NAIL-BITER

NEW ORLEANS – The Army West Point football team dropped a heartbreaking 21-17 decision at Tulane on Saturday afternoon at Yulman Stadium.

In a back-and-forth affair, Army took the 17-14 edge with 5:32 remaining in the game after Connor Slomka muscled his way five yards into the end zone. This play came immediately following his 4th-and-1 conversion.

Tulane did not go away, however, using the final minutes to draw up a game-winning scoring drive. The home team used 19 plays to get 75 yards in 5:09 to stun the Black Knights and leave them trailing with 23 seconds remaining. During the Green Wave's final drive, they converted on all three of their fourth-down opportunities. It started on 4th-and-8 from their own 27, followed by a 4th-and-3 from their own 44, before they capped things off with a 4th-and-1 from the Army six.

The Green Wave managed to go just 2-of-11 on third-down conversions, while the Black Knights finished 8-of-17. Turnovers and fourth-down conversions seemed to be the difference in the game as Army compiled three turnovers and a 2-of-4 mark on fourth downs. Tulane did not turn the ball over and went 3-of-3 when it counted the most.

Andy Davidson finished with 26 carries and a career-high 130 yards on the ground. It was the junior's sixth career 100-yard rushing game. Ahmad Bradshaw was Army's next best ball carrier with 65 yards, followed by Kell Walker who had 59 yards. Bradshaw finished 0-for-3 in the passing game with an interception.

James Nachtigal led the team with five tackles, including four solo stops. Cole Christiansen and James Gibson compiled 4.5 and four tackles, respectively.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- The Green Wave jumped out to an early lead when Dontrell Hillard broke free for a 75-yard touchdown run on the first play of scrimmage.
- Army finally got on the scoreboard early in the second quarter when Wilson drilled a 46-yarder through the uprights to cut into Tulane's lead at 7-3. His score capped a 13-play, 69-yard drive that ate up 7:39. Wilson was one yard shy of matching his career-best effort, which he achieved in a victory over Morgan State last year.
- Late in the second quarter, Davidson broke through for a 42-yard pickup, putting the Black Knights in prime scoring position. The junior nearly took it in all the way but got tripped up one yard shy. Bradshaw finished off the drive one play later with a keeper, while a Wilson PAT put Army in front for the first time at 10-7.
- After a 52-yard kickoff by Schrage, Tulane used one play to gain four yards before finding a hole for another long touchdown run. This time it was Sherman Badie who finished off the 72-yard touchdown score to put the Green Wave back in front at 14-10 with 3:45 remaining in the half.
- Neither team managed anything in the third period, which set up for an interesting fourth quarter.
- Army received the ball with 13:39 remaining and slowly worked its way to the Tulane 11-yard line. The Black Knights were then faced with a 4th-and-1. Deciding to go for it, Slomka gained the needed yardage to extend the Cadets' drive. On the ensuing play, Slomka earned his first career touchdown when he muscled his way in from the 5-yard line to give Army the 17-14 edge with 5:32 left in the contest.
- The Green Wave did not settle though, using nearly all of the final five-and-a-half minutes to ultimately secure the win. Tulane converted on all three of its fourth downs to keep the 19-play, 75-yard scoring drive alive. Jonathan Banks finally punched it in from four yards out to hand the home team the lead with just 23 seconds remaining.

- The Miners were only able to pick up two first down before being forced to punt, but they pinned Black Knights on their own nine yard line. TURNOVERS KEY IN ROAD VICTORY AT RICE

HOUSTON, Texas – The Army West Point football team forced six turnovers and turned five of those into points in a 49-12 triumph over Rice here Saturday night.

The Black Knights scored 35 of their final 49 points off of Rice turnovers. And four of those came within 3:44 of each other, spanning the end of the first quarter and early into the second.

Army controlled the majority of key categories throughout the game -- first downs, total offense, turnovers, time of possession, sacks and fourth-down conversions.

Kell Walker had a career-high game running for 127 yards on 10 carries. The sophomore racked up three touchdowns as well for his first career multi-score game. Ahmad Bradshaw also ran for over 100 yards, earning 115 to go along with his two scores.

The defensive unit was the star of the game, compiling six turnovers and Army's first pick-6 since Chris Carnegie sealed the win over Connecticut at Yankee Stadium in 2014.

James Nachtigal led the way with seven tackles, while both Alex Aukerman and Kenneth Brinson added to their season sacks total with one each in the contest. Brinson also added two fumble recoveries, while Max Regan, Scott Washle and Ryan Velez each recorded one.

Regan scored Army's pick-6 as well, marking the second touchdown of his career. It was Army's first defensive touchdown since he did so on a fumble recovery back in 2016 at UTEP.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- Army was forced to punt on 4th-and-7 and a Schrage 42-yard punt pinned the Owls on their own 31 with 4:40 remaining in the opening period. The home team managed to move the chains following pickups of six, four and four yards to shift the ball to the Rice 41-yard line. On the ensuing playing, however, Regan intercepted Miklo Smalls' pass and ran it back 48 yards to complete the pick-6.
- On the first play from scrimmage following the touchdown, Austin Walter fumbled on the Rice 25. Brinson scooped it up and ran to the Owls' 9-yard line for the fumble recovery. Andy Davidson's pickup of six yards on the next play moved the ball into prime position, before Bradshaw finished off the drive.
- After a touchback from Schrage, the Black Knights created yet another turnover when Regan stripped the ball from Smalls on the first play following that Army touchdown. Regan returned the fumble four yards before being pulled down at the Rice 23-yard line. On the ensuing play, Walker broke free on a pitch to complete the drive and hand Army the 21-0 advantage.
- The Owls finally settled in and picked up 18 and 12 yards on their next two plays following the Walker touchdown. But that would be all the Army defense would give them as Jaylon McClinton forced another fumble to create the Owls' fourth turnover of the game. Brinson recovered the fumble at the Owls' 33-yard line and a few plays later Walker found himself back in the end zone to hand Army a 28-0 lead.
- Rice finally completed a full drive but was forced to punt after being stopped on third down. Mike Reynolds returned the 37-yard punt 12 yards to begin Army's drive from their own 21-yard line. Again Walker found a hole and rushed for a career-long 47 yards to create a 35-0 gap between the teams.
- The Owls managed to get on the scoreboard midway through the third quarter when Emmanuel Esukpa rushed for a 22-yard touchdown following a conversion of 4th-and-1 on the previous play. The PAT was blocked by Wunmi Oyetuga for his second career block.
- The Black Knights rebounded though with an 11-play, 75-yard touchdown drive that ate up 5:25 off the clock. Jordan Asberry, Calen Holt, Bradshaw, Davidson, and Walker all saw carries during the drive but Bradshaw capped things off with a 7-yard scamper for his third career multi-touchdown game.
- With 10:36 remaining in the game, Army registered one final touchdown after Aukerman forced the Owls' fifth turnover of the contest. Scott Washle fell on the fumble at the 48-yard line to put the Black Knights in good position. Army converted on four third downs and a fourth down to keep the drive alive before Langdon crossed into the end zone to extend the Black Knights' edge to 49-6.
- Rice scored its final touchdown with 7:55 left after Jackson Tyner completed a 58-yard pass to Aaron Cephus. The Owls' failed to convert on the two-point conversion.brought Army to the 50-yard line for a 4th-and-1. Andy Davidson received the handoff and pushed through the pile for a four-yard gain and a first down. Army would go on to convert a pair of third downs to keep the drive alive and set up Woolfolk for a 13-yard rushing touchdown to go ahead 28-21.
- With 5:06 remaining, EMU started from its own 25-yard line and put together an 11 play, 75-yard drive to come within one with 49 seconds left in the contest. That drive was capped by Roback's eight-yard score to Sergio Bailey. After a flurry of timeouts by both teams, the Eages' two-point conversion attempt was snuffed out by Gibson, who stopped Eriksen a yard shy of the goal line.
- An on-side kick attempt on the ensuing kickoff was swallowed up by John Voit to secure the victory for Army.

ARMY CLOSER TO CIC TROPHY WITH 21-0 VICTORY

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. – The Army West Point football team blanked service-academy rival Air Force on Saturday afternoon, 21-0.

The Black Knights are now one step closer to winning the Commander-In-Chief's trophy, which will be decided on Dec. 9 when Army and Navy clash in the annual Army-Navy Game presented by USAA.

With the outcome, the Cadets shut out the Falcons for the first time in program history. The Black Knights' win marked the first time Air Force has been shut out since 1992 and the first time the Falcons have been blanked at home since 1980.

It was also Army's first shutout of a service-academy opponent since a 27-0 victory over Navy on Nov. 29, 1969. Army's last shutout of any opponent came in a 55-0 win over Fordham on Oct. 29, 2011.

Saturday's contest was controlled by Army from start to finish. The Black Knights limited the Falcons to a season-low 190 total yards. The Cadets also held the No. 2 rushing offense in the nation to just 95 yards on the day. Senior quarterback Ahmad Bradshaw rushed for 265 yards in the game, which broke Army's all-time quarterback single-game rushing record. The mark was previously held by Trent Steelman when he posted 212 against Eastern Michigan on Oct. 20, 2012.

Kell Walker and Darnell Woolfolk were Army's next best rushers with 67 and 54, respectively, on the day. James Nachtigal and Cole Christiansen led the defense with 10 tackles each. Nachtigal, Alex Aukerman and Kenneth Brinson all added sacks, while Aukerman recorded two tackles for a loss of eight yards.

ARMY GAME NOTES AND HIGHLIGHTS

- Bradshaw ran for a career high 266 yards, including 164 in the first half.
- Bradshaw has eclipsed the 1,000 yard rushing mark this season and was the first player to do so since Larry Dixon in 2014.
- Bradshaw now has 2,425 rushing yards in his career.
- With his impressive game, Bradshaw passed recently inducted Army West Point Hall of Famer Charlie Jarvis for eighth all-time on the career rushing list.
- The senior is now tied for 11th in Army history with 21 rushing touchdowns.
- He also now has 10 career 100-yard rushing games, which is tied for seventh all-time.
- Walker recorded the second multi-touchdown game of his career with the other coming in a victory over Rice earlier this season.
- Brinson recorded a sack and now has 7.5 in his career.
- Aukerman added his sixth sack of the season and has 13.5 in his career, which is tied for third in Army history with Cameron Craig.
- Christiansen has a career-best 10 tackles with seven in the opening half.
- The Black Knights did not punt in a game for the second time this season and they are 2-0 in those contests. The last time they did not record a punt was during their season-opening victory over Fordham.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- On the second play from scrimmage, Bradshaw rushed for 48 yards to put the Black Knights in good field position at the Air Force 24-yard line. Three plays later Bradshaw finished off the five-play, 75-yard drive with a 21-yard touchdown run for his 21st career score.
- Midway through the second quarter, Air Force had moved the ball into Army territory. The Black Knights then pressured the Falcons to throw two incomplete passes and rush for a loss of two yards to force the home team into a punting situation. After a 25-yard punt, the Cadets took over from their own 25. The Black Knights slowly chipped away a few yards here and a few yards there before Walker found the end zone following a 27-yard scamper. Blake Wilson then converted the PAT to hand Army a 14-0 edge.
- The Black Knights came up with a huge stop from their own 16-yard line on fourth down with just under 10 minutes remaining when Rhyan England hurried Air Force quarterback Arion Worthman into throwing an incomplete pass. The Cadets took over and used 7:44 off the clock to punch one last score in. During the 14-play, 84-yard drive, Army converted on three third downs. Walker was the man to push it across the goal line and with the score he notched his second multi-touchdown game of the season.

ARMY COMPLETES HOME SCHEDULE UNBEATEN

WEST POINT, N.Y. – After capturing a 21-16 victory over Duke on Saturday afternoon at Michie Stadium, the Army West Point football team completed its quest to go undefeated at home by finishing 6-0 at West Point.

Despite being held scoreless in the second half, the Black Knights were able to hold off the Blue Devils and improve to 8-2 overall on the season, while Duke dropped to 4-6.

On the offensive end, Ahmad Bradshaw led the rushing attack with 97 yards on 20 carries and a touchdown. Andy Davidson followed with 10 rushes for 64 yards. Darnell Woolfolk was the third Army rusher to accumulate double-digit carries and gained 53 yards on 16 attempts with a pair of scores.

Defensively, Cole Christiansen and James Nachtigal finished with 10 and nine tackles, respectively, while Alex Aukerman powered his way to seven stops. The Army defense filled the stat sheet, recording four sacks, five tackles for loss, seven pass breakups,a fumble recovery and a blocked punt for a touchdown.

Prior to the start of the game, 16 senior cadet-athletes were honored with a small ceremony for their dedication to the program over the last four years. John Trainor, Rhyan England, Bradshaw, Blake Wilson, Aukerman, Scott Washle, Bayle Wolf, Matt Sannella, Andrew McLean, John Voit, Bryce Holland, Joshua Boylan, Mike Houghton, Brett Toth, Jeff Ejekam and Jermaine Adams were all acknowledged.

ARMY HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES

- The Black Knights finished their home slate having won all six games this season.
- Army is currently riding a six-game winning streak, dating back to a Sept. 30th victory over UTEP.
- Woolfolk has scored a rushing touchdown in all five of Army's home games that he has appeared in.
- Nachtigal recorded a sack for the third consecutive game.
- Davidson blocked the second punt of his career in the second quarter.
- Javhari Bourdeau scored his first collegiate touchdown following that blocked punt after he scooped it up from 25-yards out.
- England recovered his third career fumble in that quarter as well.
- Bradshaw tallied his team-best 10th touchdown of the season and 22nd of his career.
- Bradshaw's 42-yard completion to Kell Walker tied a season-long.
- The 42-yard catch was the longest of Walker's career.
- Christiansen's 10 tackles tied his career best.
- Elijah Riley recorded his fourth career interception and first career sack.
- Army's last Veteran's Day win was a 29-26 victory over Boston College at West Point in 1978.

TURNING POINT

- Holding a slim 7-3 lead entering the second quarter, the Blue Devils committed what turned out to be a costly intentional grounding penalty on third down after Voit charged into the backfield. With the ball on their own 21, the Blue Devils went to boot the ball down the field, but Davidson slid in front and blocked the punt before they could get the kick away. With the ball loose on the ground, Bourdeau picked it up at the 25-yard line and sprinted into the end zone untouched to put Army ahead, 14-3.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- Army started with the ball and Walker took the opening kickoff 38 yards to the Black Knight 46. After three straight runs failed to produce a first down, Army went for it on fourth-and-two, but was stopped short and turned the ball over on downs.
- With the ball near the 50-yard line, the Blue Devils used a balanced attack to trek inside the red zone. However, the Army defense managed to limit Duke to just three points after a 22-yard field goal went through the uprights.
- The Black Knights countered Duke with a scoring drive of their own. Davidson accounted for 37 of the team's 80 yards on the drive that was capped off by a Woolfolk 3-yard scoring rush.
- Buried inside their own 20 and facing a 4th-and-long situation after being called for intentional grounding, the Blue Devils were force to punt. The ball was snapped, but the punt never got off as Davidson charged in and bslocked the kick, allowing Bourdeau enough time to scoop it up and scamper into the end zone for a touchdown to put Army ahead, 14-3.
- Starting from their own 13 early in the second quarter, the Blue Devils worked their way into Army territory. After a pass interference call on a 3rd-and-7 by Army, Duke completed a 10-yard pass to the Army 33-yard line. But on the ensuing play, the visitors fumbled the handoff and England pounced on the ball for the turnover.
- After two straight rushes, the Black Knights eyed a 3rd-and-9 scenario. On the third-down play, Bradshaw faked the handoff and found a streaking Walker down the left sideline for a 42-yard completion. It took two more plays for Army to tally its third score of the game as Bradshaw kept the ball and found the gap for an 18-yard rushing touchdown to increase Army's lead to 21-3.
- Duke responded on the ensuing drive after leaning heavily on their quarterback. Daniel Jones compiled 35 yards through the air on four-of-five passes to go along with 22 yards on the ground. He finished off an 11-play, 86-yard drive with a 4-yard rushing score.
- The Blue Devils began the second half with the ball but failed to generate much on their opening drive. Duke was fortunate enough though to get the ball back after Army fumbled on a pitch play during the next drive. Duke took advantage of its second chance by running the ball eight times and completing four passes prior to trimming the deficit to five at 21-16, on a rushing touchdown from 1-yard out by Brittain Brown.
- In the fourth quarter, Army grinded out one of its longest drives of the season. Over 10 minutes ran off the clock during the Black Knights' 18-play drive that set them up in the red zone for a field goal. However, Wilson's attempt was blocked and Duke took over with 4:15 left to play.
- Duke failed to pick up more than one first down and punted the ball back to Army. With 2:24 remaining, Army compiled a pair of first-down runs before winding down the clock to seal the 21-16 victory.

LAST-SECOND FIELD GOAL LIFTS NORTH TEXAS PAST ARMY

DENTON, Texas – The Army West Point football team dropped a devastating 52-49 decision at North Texas here Saturday night in a high-scoring affair.

After a back-and-forth game that featured five different tie scores, the Mean Green booted a 39-yard field goal with five seconds remaining to stun the Black Knights. Despite the outcome, Army compiled a season-high 561 total yards, with 534 of those coming from the ground game, also a season-best mark.

This was the first Army game since a 59-52 double-overtime victory over Louisville on Oct. 7, 1999, that saw more than 100 combined points between the two squads and the first time it happened in regulation since the Black Knights defeated Lafayette, 56-48, on Nov. 15, 1986.

The Black Knights went 8-of-11 on third downs and 1-of-2 on fourth-down conversions. North Texas finished at 7-of-11 and 2-of-2, respectively. An individual highlight from the night was Ahmad Bradshaw eclipsing Collin Mooney for Army's all-time single-season rushing title. The senior finished with 244 yards on the day and now holds the Academy record at 1,472. He has 2,764 career rushing yards and 24 career touchdowns to his name after two scores in the game.

Also finding the end zone was Darnell Woolfolk and Andy Davidson. Both registered two scores with Woolfolk compiling 120 yards on 18 carries and Davidson adding 72 yards on 11 rushes. Bradshaw finished 1-of-3 passing on the night with his lone completion being a 27-yard connection to John Trainor on Army's final scoring drive.

The game was tied at 7-7 after both team's scored on their opening drives. The home team posted back-to-back touchdowns to break the game open at 21-7 with 14:45 remaining in the second period. Army responded with two touchdowns in between another North Texas score to make it a 28-20 Mean Green lead at the break.

The Black Knights came out of the gate after halftime and saw Fred Cooper Jr. tie the game up with a 17-yard rush. Unfortunately, the home team answered a little later in the third period to pull back in front, 35-28.

The fourth and final quarter saw five touchdowns and 38 points scored between the two teams. Woolfolk broke free early in that quarter to again knot the score at 35-all. The teams exchanged two touchdowns each over a 13-minute span to set up an exciting final 1:23. The Cadets had North Texas pinned twice on 3rd-and-5, but were unable to keep the Mean Green from picking up the first down. North Texas continued to slowly chip away at the yardage before they watched Trevor Moore hit the eventual game-winning field goal from 39-yards out with five seconds remaining to register the win.

ARMY HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES

- Bradshaw passed Trent Steelman for the most single-season rushing yards for a quarterback in Army history.
- He now has 2,764 yards in his career and is seventh all-time on the career rushing list at Army.
- Bradshaw ran for his 11th touchdown of the season and 24th of his career.
- He is now tied for eighth in Army history with Gil Stephenson with 24 rushing touchdowns.
- Bradshaw passed Collin Mooney for Army's single-season rushing crown. He now has 1,472 on the year.
- Woolfolk recorded his third multi-touchdown game of the season and fifth of his career.
- The junior scored his 10th and 11th touchdown of the year and has a touchdown in seven of his eight games played this year.
- Davidson rushed for two touchdowns in the game for the first time this season and the fifth in his career.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- North Texas wasted little time putting points up on the scoreboard as it took its opening drive 77 yards into the end zone. Jeffery Wilson completed the 10-play drive that ate up 4:05 off the clock.
- Bradshaw and the Black Knights responded, however, with a scoring drive of their own. Despite being faced with a 3rd-and-3 twice during the possession, Bradshaw punched one home from 1-yard out to knot the score at 7-all.
- And back-and-forth we went as the Mean Green responded less than a minute-and-a-half later when Mason Fine connected with Turner Smiley for a 45-yard touchdown reception to pull back in front at 14-7.
- After Army failed to convert on fourth down during its next possession, North Texas took over at its own 36. The Mean Green were, however, tackled for a loss of two, before being forced to punt two plays later after failing to reach the first-down marker. The Black Knights fumbled the punt return though awarding the home team prime field position after they recovered it at the Army 7-yard line. North Texas then extended its advantage to 21-7 after finding the end zone two plays later.
- Army would not go away. The Black Knights answered with a 12-play 75-yard drive, capped off by Bradshaw's 15-yard scoring scamper. Army pulled within 21-13, after a botched snap on the point-after.
- North Texas responded to make it a two touchdown ballgame again after Fine found Jalen Guyton for a 10-yard touchdown reception with a little more than seven minutes to play in the half.
- Army yet again cut the deficit down during its next possession when Woolfolk broke free from seven-yards out. His score completed a six-play, 75-yard drive.
- The home team took the final four minutes and drove the ball into Army territory at the 19-yard line. After picking up a first-down, Fine was picked off by Max Regan, who recorded his second career interception. The Black Knights then ran out the final 53 seconds of the half to head into the locker room only down eight.
- After the break, Bradshaw ran the ball three-of-four times before Cooper crossed the goal line for his second touchdown of the season. The Black Knights then decided to go for two after missing a PAT earlier in the contest. Bradshaw's two-point conversion was successful and the game was tied at 28-28.
- North Texas scored on its ensuing drive to set up an exciting fourth quarter.
- 18 seconds into the period Woolfolk rushed for his second touchdown of the contest to knot the score at 35-all.
- The two teams exchanged touchdowns over their next four possessions to make it a 49-49 ballgame with 1:23 remaining.
- After a 45-yard kickoff by Nick Schrage, North Texas started what would be its game-winning drive from their own 20-yard line. The Mean Green were faced with 3rd-and-5 on two different occasions and were able to earn the needed yardage each time to keep their drive alive. With nine ticks remaining on the clock North Texas set up Moore from 39-yards out for a field goal. The kick was good, leaving just five seconds remaining in the game.
- Army tried some laterals late but were unfortunately unable to answer.

ARMY WINS THRILLER OVER NAVY TO CLAIM CIC TROPHY

PHILADELPHIA – The Army West Point football team captured a thrilling 14-13 victory over service-academy rival Navy in the 118th installment of the Army Navy Game, presented by USAA, on Saturday afternoon at Lincoln Financial Field.

With the win, Army secured the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy for the first time since 1996.

The game came down to a nail-biting 48-yard field goal try from Navy with three seconds left to play. But the Mids' kick sailed wide left sparking chaos on the Army sidelines.

The Black Knights defeated Navy for the second-consecutive season and did so with a late fourth-quarter score by quarterback Ahmad Bradshaw. The senior led the charge with a team-best 94 rushing yards and what turned out to be the game-winning touchdown. Darnell Woolfolk followed with 57 yards on the ground on 12 carries with a score as well.

On the defensive side, James Nachtigal tallied a team-high 11 tackles, while Alex Aukerman finished with 10. James Gibson and Cole Christiansen combined for 18 with nine apiece.

The historic rivalry between the two service academies featured 95 rushes and just three passes with both quarterbacks combining for 51 carries and 344 yards.

ARMY HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES

- Woolfolk's touchdown was the 12th of the season and 21st of his career.
- He has recorded a touchdown in eight of Army's nine games this season.
- Bradshaw rushed for the 12th touchdown of the season and 25th of his career.
- He is now seventh all-time in career rushing touchdowns.
- The senior quarterback was named the game's Most Valuable Player.
- Gibson posted a career-high nine tackles.
- This win was Army's first over Navy at Lincoln Financial Field in 11 tries.
- Army won its first game this season when behind entering the fourth quarter.
- The Cadets are 6-0 this season when scoring first.
- Army is 4-0 all-time in one-point games against Navy.
- This was the first time Army defeated Navy in back-to-back seasons since 1995-96.
- The Black Knights' defense held the Mids to their lowest point total since a 14-13 victory in 1995.

TURNING POINT

- Army and Navy both watched the clock wind down to three seconds before the Midshipmen called their final timeout to set up a 48-yard field goal attempt. Bennett Moehring, the Navy kicker, lined up for the try. His kick had the distance but it sail wide left handing the Black Knights an impressive come-from-behind-victory over their arch-rival.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- On the opening drive of the game, Army converted on third down on its own side of the field when Kell Walker broke off a 33-yard run down the right sideline, placing Army on the Navy 25. Edging their way closer to the end zone, the Black Knights found themselves with a 4th-and-1 situation on the Navy 4. Once again the Cadets handed it off to Walker, who picked up the key first down. Woolfolk then received the next hand-off and powered his way up the middle for the three-yard score to give Army the early advantage.
- Navy looked to counter Army's opening drive with a score of its own and leaned heavily on Malcolm Perry. The quarterback compiled 54 yards on the drive. Despite, picking up a first down on a 4th-and-1 on the Black Knight 20, Navy was limited to a 28-yard field goal that trimmed the deficit to four, at 7-3.
- After forcing Army to punt on its second drive of the game, the Midshipmen regained possession and, on 3rd-and-4 from the Mids own 32, Perry dashed down the field for a 68-yard score to give Navy the slim lead.
- The two sides combined for five additional drives throughout the half, but neither were able to find the end zone and the two teams went into the break with Navy still holding a 10-7 edge.
- The Midshipmen started the second half with the ball and once again relied heavily on Perry. From their own 23, the sophomore carried the ball on three of the team's first four plays before breaking off a 46-yard run down the field. He was on his way into the end zone, but John Voit chased him down and made a diving stop to trip him up and prevent the score. That long rush brought the Midshipmen into the red zone, however, the Army defense held its ground and Navy was only able to manufacture a field goal to go ahead 13-7.
- Army got the ball back on its own 20 and was looking at a 3rd-and-7 when Bradshaw dropped back and threw up a pass to Calen Holt 20 yards down the field to keep the drive alive. Two plays later, Bradshaw scampered 21 yards to the Navy 34. The Black Knights rushed the ball eight additional times for 21 yards before being forced to attempt a 35-yard field goal that sailed wide right.
- The Black Knights' defense came back onto the field and forced a three-and-out, giving Army possession of the ball with 12:50 left to play in the game. Bradshaw broke off three straight runs for a combined 33 yards, putting the team in Navy territory. Army continued to ground and pound its way further down the field. With the ball inside the Navy 10, John Trainor received the pitch from Bradshaw and tip toed the sideline before being knocked out at the one. Bradshaw then kept the ball on the ensuing play and pushed through the pile up the middle for the score to put Army back on top, 14-13.
- Trailing for the first time since early in the first quarter, Navy eyed one final possession with 5:10 remaining on the clock. Nick Schrage's kick went out of bounds on the kickoff and the Midshipmen started with the ball on their own 35. Perry carried the ball eight times and brought his team to the Army 25. However, a pair of false starts backed Navy up 10 yards. Perry rushed one final time with seconds remaining in hopes to get a shorter field goal try, but Nachtigal made the stop to prevent any gain.
- With three seconds left to play, Navy called its final timeout, setting up a 48-yard field goal attempt. Moehring, who previously made one from that distance earlier this season against Temple, lined up for the kick, but it went wide left and Army secured the one-point win.

BACK-TO-BACK BOWL CHAMPIONS!

FORT WORTH, Texas – In what has become typical Army West Point football games, the Black Knights persevered here Saturday afternoon in thrilling fashion to win the 2017 Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl, 42-35, over San Diego State.

In a contest that featured four tie scores and four lead changes, a gutsy two-point conversion call by Army head coach Jeff Monken determined the outcome. After a Darnell Woolfolk one-yard rush pulled Army to within 35-34 with 18 seconds left, SDSU called two timeouts which allowed the Black Knights enough time to draw up the perfect two-point attempt call. With team captain Ahmad Bradshaw under center, the senior stepped back and pitched it to sophomore Kell Walker, who dashed home for the score.

Ball game.

SDSU did have 12 seconds to work with, but after returning the kickoff to the 40-yard line, the Aztecs were sacked for a loss of 10 yards before also being tagged with an intentional grounded call. Senior Alex Aukerman was credited with his seventh sack of the season when he took down Christian Chapman. Timeout San Diego State. On the ensuing play, the designated visiting team tried some laterals before fumbling at the 29-yard line into the hands of Elijah Riley who dashed into the end zone.

Pandemonium ensued, and the entire Black Knights team met the sophomore in the corner of the field to celebrate their second-consecutive bowl victory in as many years. Army has now won back-to-back bowls games for the first time since the 1984 and 1985 seasons (Cherry Bowl and Peach Bowl).

The Black Knights matched their program record for wins with Saturday's outcome (10) and broke last season's rushing touchdown mark with 50 on the year after five in the contest.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- After San Diego State returned the opening kickoff to the 27-yard line, a holding penalty on first down put the Aztecs behind the chains. Army managed to make stops on the first two downs to set up a 3rd-and-18, but Rashaad Penny broke free for an 81-yard touchdown to open the scoring 1:24 into the game.
- Army answered later in the opening frame to pull even with an eight play, 70-yard scoring drive with Bradshaw scoring from 19-yards out.
- SDSU retook the lead on the ensuing drive, capped by a 32-yard rush by Perry for his second score of the game.
- Not to be outdone, the Black Knights produced a scoring drive the next time they touched the ball to bring the score to 14-all. Woolfolk muscled his way into the end zone from seven-yards out to bring the Black Knights even with 7:50 left in the half.
- After a SDSU punt, the Black Knights earned their first lead of the game on their next drive. Army needed 13 plays to travel 53 yards, starting with sequential four-yard carries by Calen Holt, Connor Slomka, Bradshaw and Davidson. Davidson came up with the key rush with 18 seconds remaining before the break by diving into the end zone to finish off a four-yard touchdown run.
- Army elected to kick it short on the ensuing kickoff to Juwan Washington, who fielded the ball at his own 22-yard line and cut it across the field down the right sideline for the equalizing score right before the teams broke for halftime.
- The Black Knights missed a field goal on their first possession of the second half and San Diego State then started its drive and needed just four plays to retake the lead, capped by Penny's third touchdown of the afternoon, this time from 49-yards out.
- The two sides traded interceptions with Aukerman contributing his first pick of the year in the red zone after McClinton tipped the ball in the air while falling to the ground. The Black Knights took advantage of that opportunity by marching 79 yards down the field on 10 plays. Bradshaw found the end zone for the second time in the contest with 9:25 left in the game after breaking off for a 27-yard rush.
- Penny added his fourth score of the game on the following drive to put the Aztecs back on top, 35-28, with 5:47 remaining.
- The Black Knights capitalized on yet another long drive, closing out the 15-play, 72-yard journey with a one-yard score by Woolfolk to pull Army within one. After back-to-back called timeouts by SDSU, the Black Knights attempted a two-point conversion. On the try, Bradshaw pitched the ball to Walker who scampered in to give the Black Knights a one-point advantage.
- With only 12 ticks left on the clock, San Diego State looked to the passing game to get into field goal range. A sack by Aukerman on an intentional grounding penalty left the Aztecs with seven seconds left. SDSU made a last-ditch effort on the final play with multiple laterals, but had the ball taken away by Riley and returned 29 yards for the final score as time expired to ultimately secure the victory for the Black Knights.

THE 1944 ARMY TEAM WENT 9-0 CLAIMING THE FIRST OF ARMY'S THREE STRAIGHT NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS.

The numbers bound off the page with the explosiveness of a "Doc" Blanchard burst up the middle. Fifty-six points per game ... five-hundred-four points scored ... thirty-five points allowed ... four shutouts ... nine wins without a loss ... six first team All-America selections.

Never before had a college football team authored such astonishing credentials. No squad has been able to duplicate that dominance since. Many college football historians contend the 1944 Army squad ranks as the finest college club ever assembled. Critics are hard-pressed to build a substantive argument against those bold assertions.

It was the prelude to a dynasty, a decade of success never experienced along the banks of the Hudson. And it began with the hiring of Earl "Red" Blaik as Army head coach following the 1940 season.

Blaik enjoyed immediate success at West Point, leading the Cadets to three consecutive winning records during his first three years at the Army helm. With World War II raging, colleges all over the country suspended the eligibility rule for freshmen. West Point was no exception, and Blaik's teams benefitted greatly. The crafty mentor was able to secure appointments for some of the nation's top young players.

The most important addition to the 1943 club was a standout halfback named Glenn Davis. Though only a plebe, Davis starred for the Cadets that year. Another one of Blaik's prized recruits arrived at West Point the following year in the form of Blanchard. Together "Mr. Inside" (Blanchard) and "Mr. Outside" (Davis), as they were labeled, would form one of college football's greatest running duos.

Still the hard-running backfield tandem was but a single component within Army's vast arsenal. In fact, Army's depth was so great that Blaik fielded two squads. The "Lombardo Team," quarterbacked by Tom Lombardo, consisted primarily of plebes, including Blanchard and Davis. The "Kenna Team," led by senior signal caller Doug Kenna, started every game before yielding to Lombardo's unit at the start of the second quarter.

Once asked to select the best game he saw these teams play, Blaik responded, "That's easy. It was a Wednesday afternoon in October when they scrimmaged each other. Each scored two touchdowns, but the intensity and execution were the best I ever have seen on any gridiron, any place."

As a whole, the unit was awesome, easily becoming the first unbeaten and untied team at West Point since 1916. In order, the Cadets pounded North Carolina (46-0), Brown (59-7), Pittsburgh (69-7), Coast Guard (76-0), Duke (27-7) and Villanova (83-0). The Cadets set their sights on mighty Notre Dame next. It had been 13 years since Army had defeated the Irish, but that streak ended at Yankee Stadium as the Cadets registered a surprising 59-0 rout. Fears of a letdown the following week versus Pennsylvania were quickly quelled when Army blitzed the Quakers 62-7.

That verdict set the stage for a climactic showdown with arch-rival Navy. The matchup, pitting the top-ranked Cadets against the second-ranked Midshipmen, would decide the national championship. A crowd of better than 70,000 packed Baltimore's Municipal Stadium to witness Army roll to a 23-7 victory.

ARMY 59, NOTRE DAME 0

That night Blaik received a telegram: "The greatest of all Army teams—STOP—We have stopped the war to celebrate your magnificent success. MacArthur."

Still one of the most inspirational tributes came from Blaik, himself.

"Seldom in a lifetime's experience is one permitted the complete satisfaction of being part of a perfect performance. To the coaches, the 23-7 is enough. To the squad members, by hard work and sacrifice, you superbly combined ability, ambition, and the desire to win, thereby leaving a rich heritage for future Academy squads. From her sons West Point expects the best—you were the best. In truth, you were a storybook team."

- HEAD COACH EARL "RED" BLAIK

As the Army football team prepared for the 1945 season, victory had been declared in the Pacific and Gen. Douglas MacArthur called for a "better world" to emerge from the ashes of World War II.

Soldiers were returning from Europe, and the United States was celebrating the end of almost four years of global conflict. West Point's 1945 grid squad, meanwhile, faced the daunting task of replicating the accomplishments of Army's 1944 team, which included the Cadets' first perfect season in nearly 30 years, a national championship and collegiate records for scoring and scoring margin that still stand today.

Fortunately, Felix "Doc" Blanchard, Glenn Davis and Arnold Tucker returned to see if they could create a football dynasty. The team dubbed "Blaik's Black Knights" by New York Sun sportswriter Will Wedge would ultimately measure up to the task.

During an easy 32-0 season-opening victory over Personnel Distribution Command of the Army Air Force stationed at Louisville, Ky., a new star emerged in the Black Knights' constellation. Thomas "Shorty" McWilliams, a plebe who had been a standout at Mississippi State in 1944, guided Army's Wing-T offense to a lopsided win.

The Cadets followed with lopsided verdicts over Wake Forest (54-0), Michigan (28-7), Melville, R.I., USN (55-13), Duke (48-13) and Villanova (54-0). The Cadets expected a stern battle against Notre Dame the next week at Yankee Stadium. More than 75,000 fans witnessed an awesome Army display as the Cadets proved their convincing win over the Irish one year earlier was no fluke, cruising to a 48-0 victory.

A week later, Blanchard and Davis combined for five touchdowns as Army crushed longtime nemesis Pennsylvania 61-0, handing the Quakers their worst loss since 1888. Moreover, that game has been called "Army's peak game of all time." According to noted sportswriter Tim Cohane, "The Black Knights were invincible on the attack, overpowering on the defense. Their blocking and tackling were murderous; their team speed blinding."

The Cadets would need every bit of that talent two weeks later against undefeated Navy in Philadelphia.

THE 1945 TEAM RECORDED FIVE OF ITS NINE VICTORIES BY SHUTOUT.

As was the case in 1944, the game would decide the national championship.

Army raced out to a 20-0 first-quarter lead and the Midshipmen could never recover, falling 32-13 as Blanchard finished with three touchdowns and Davis with two.

Honors came pouring in for the team and its players. Army was the unanimous national champion, and Blanchard captured the Heisman Trophy as the nation's outstanding player. Davis was runner-up. Blanchard also received the Maxwell Cup and Walter Camp Trophy as college football's outstanding player, and the Sullivan Award as the outstanding amateur athlete in America. Six Army players were tabbed as first team All-America picks.

Evaluating the squad that year, Blaik called it the greatest team he had ever coached. Some have argued that the 1945 Army team was the best in the history of college football. One look at the team's accomplishments makes it hard to debate that assessment.

Blaik acclaimed "Coach of the Year"
National Champions

Only eight starters from Army's 1945 national championship team returned to the West Point fold the following year as the Cadets attempted to capture a third consecutive national championship. Fortunately for head coach Earl "Red" Blaik, the returning players included standouts Felix "Doc" Blanchard, Glenn Davis and Arnold Tucker.

The Cadets kicked off their 1946 campaign against Villanova, racing to an easy 35-0 victory, but the win was tainted when Blanchard suffered a serious knee injury. Diagnosed as a torn anterior cruciate ligament and a torn membrane, Blanchard's ailment would have sidelined lesser players for the entire year, yet Blanchard would return the following month.

Defeats of Oklahoma (21-7) and Cornell (46-21) followed, setting the stage for a rematch against No. 4 Michigan in the Wolverines' new stadium in Ann Arbor, Mich. Playing for the first time since his knee injury, Blanchard proved little threat to the Wolverines until scoring the game-winning touchdown, sparking second-ranked Army to a 20-13 win.

Michigan head coach Fritz Crisler said later that season, "We played our finest game of the year against Army," and Wolverine running back Bob Chappuis admitted, "We were three months recovering from that game."

Blanchard began to regain his form against Columbia the next week, scoring four times in the Cadets' 48-14 whipping of the Lions. Consecutive 19-0 shutouts of Duke and West Virginia preceded another showdown with No. 1 Notre Dame.

The nation's two top-ranked teams went head-to-head at Yankee Stadium in a classic defensive struggle that ended in a 0-0 tie. Notre Dame stiffened six times with Army inside the Irish 30, while the Cadets allowed Notre Dame past midfield just three times all day. The scoreless deadlock snapped Army's winning streak at 25 and each team maintained its national ranking.

Army shrugged off early offensive lethargy to deal Pennsylvania a 34-7 setback heading into the annual season-ending battle with arch-rival Navy. The season had taken a dreadful toll on the Black Knights, who nonetheless were unbeaten entering the fray.

A crowd of 100,000 jammed Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium for one of the most stunning contests in the history of the series. Army jumped out to a 21-6 halftime bulge, but Navy came roaring back, closing to within 21-18. As time wound down, Navy drove to the Army 3-yard line, but two late plunges by fullback Lynn Chewning and another by Pete Williams, who was corralled by Barney Poole, proved fruitless.

As the ball sat just four yards from paydirt and a Navy upset, the clock ran out on another frenzied service academy classic, providing Army with a 21-18 win and its third straight undefeated season.

Notre Dame was named national champion in five polls that year with Army claiming top honors in two others. The teams were listed as co-champions in three additional rankings.

Still, Army had much to be proud about. Davis accepted the Heisman Trophy as the outstanding football player in the nation. Tucker received the Sullivan Award as the country's outstanding amateur athlete. And Blaik was named "Coach of the Year" by the Football Coaches Association of America. In all, four Cadets garnered first team All-America honors.

Looking back on his players and the teams of Army's glory years, Blaik said, "'Doc and Glenn did more for West Point football than any other player or coach in history."

That fact still holds true today.

Michigan head coach Fritz Crisler said later that season, "We played our finest game of the year against Army," and Wolverine running back Bob Chappuis admitted, "We were three months recovering from that game."

The John W. Heisman Memorial Trophy Award is presented each year by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York to the nation's outstanding college football player.

First known as the D.A.C. Trophy, the award was renamed in 1936 for John W. Heisman, the first athletic director of the Downtown Athletic Club, a football player at Pennsylvania and Brown and a coach for 36 years, including tours at Auburn, Oberlin, Clemson, Akron, Pennsylvania, Rice, Washington & Jefferson and Georgia Tech.

The bronze trophy was sculpted by Frank Eliscu with the help of one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen," Jim Crowley, whose Fordham players posed as models.

Since the inception of the Heisman Trophy in 1935, three Army players have garnered the award. Only four other schools—Notre Dame (7), Southern California (7), Ohio State (7) and Oklahoma (5)—have had more winners.

Army's "Mr. Inside," Felix "Doc" Blanchard, and "Mr. Outside," Glenn Davis, captured the Heisman in back-to-back years in 1945 and 1946, respectively, leading Army to national championships in both years. Just over a decade later (1958), Pete Dawkins led the Cadets to their most recent Lambert Trophy title and their last undefeated season (8-0-1) on his way to earning the honor.

In 1990, Mike Mayweather became the first Army player to attract serious attention from Heisman voters since Dawkins' selection more than 30 years prior. Mayweather, who graduated from West Point in 1991 as Army's all-time leading rusher and the most prolific runner in service academy history, finished 10th in the Heisman balloting, garnering three first-place votes.

An All-America selection who also finished as second runnerup in voting for the inaugural Doak Walker Award, Mayweather rushed for a then school-record 1,338 yards in 1990, concluding with 4,299 career ground yards, another Army standard.

HALL OF FAME HAS STRONG ARMY INFLUENCE

Founded in 1947 by immortal journalist Grantland Rice, legendary Army coach Earl "Red" Blaik and West Point graduate Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame is dedicated to mobilizing the constructive forces of amateur football at all levels for the benefit of society as a whole.

In addition to the visionary foresight of Blaik and MacArthur, who helped shape the Foundation in its early days, the College Hall of Fame carries a distinct Army flavor as 27 former players and coaches have been included among the game's elite. In addition, others with West Point ties, like Bill Yeoman '50 and Bob Neyland '16, have been enshrined.

Recognized as the "Father of Cougar Football," Yeoman forged a sparkling 160-108-8 (.597) record during a 25-year stint at the University of Houston, leading the Cougars to 11 bowl games and four Southwest Conference championships. Neyland, named head coach at Tennessee in 1926, spent 27 seasons at the helm of the Volunteers' program. In that time, his squads amassed a 173-32-12 record and captured four national championships. Neyland was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1956.

The Foundation inducted its first class into the Hall of Fame in 1951, and each year the gridiron's greatest collegians have been enshrined among the pantheon of players who have shaped the game. Today, the College Football Hall of Fame is located in South Bend, Ind.

More than 900 players and coaches, who exemplified the Foundation's basic creed of Scholarship, Citizenship and Performance, are honored in a world-class museum.

Former President and Foundation Gold Medal recipient Dwight D. Eisenhower summed up the impact of college football with the following: "In football, in business, in the trades and the professions, the normal urge to excel provides one of the most hopeful assurances that our kind of society will continue to advance and prosper. Morale ... the will to win, the fighting heart ... are the honored hallmarks of the football coach and player. This morale, this will, this heart ... we need not only in athletic teams as individual, but collectively."

Since 1925, when Gus Farwick and Edgar Garbisch competed in the East-West Shrine Game, dozens of Army players have been invited to participate in postseason all-star games. The following list shows those players who appeared in games, and when (year reflective of date game was played).
